Middlebury College
"Many loved truth and lavished life's best oil
  Amid the dust of books to find her,
Content at last, for guerdon of their toil,
  With the cast mantle she hath left behind her.
Many in sad faith sought for her,
  Many with crossed hands sighed for her;
But these, our brothers, fought for her,
  At life's dear peril wrought for her,
So loved her that they died for her,
  Tasting the raptured fleetness
  Of her divine completeness,
Their high instinct knew:
Those love her best who to themselves are true,
And what they dare to dream of, dare to do;
  They followed her and found her
Where all may hope to find,
Not in the ashes of the burnt-out mind,
  But beautiful with danger's sweetness round her;
Where faith made whole with deed
  Breathes its awakening breath
Into the lifeless creed;
  They saw her plumed and mailed
With sweet stern face unveiled,
  And all repaying eyes look proud on them in death."

President, Middlebury College,

Middlebury, Vt.

My Dear Dr. Thomas:

It has long been my desire that Addison County and vicinity should have the facilities of a first class hospital, and it has also been my desire that Middlebury College should have an infirmary. It has seemed to me that the two purposes might be combined in one institution, and I know of no better instrumentality for the management of such an institution than the Trustees of Middlebury College. If you are of the opinion that the plan will work out satisfactorily I will be pleased to donate to the President and Fellows of Middlebury College the sum of Fifty thousand dollars to cover the cost.

I understand that a hospital of adequate size would ordinarily cost about $30,000, but as I would like the building to be of fireproof construction, with the best modern equipment, and as it is probable that all costs will be rather high for the next few years, I have suggested the sum of $50,000 as being quite sufficient for the purpose. If the plan is acceptable, I should wish the hospital to be prepared by an architect of my selection, and I should like the building erected on some part of the college land where it would face the Northeast and have that wonderful view of the Green Mountains.

I would like the building named and known as the Porter Hospital, and I would like to put in a tablet which I will suggest later.

Very truly yours,

(Signed) Wm. H. Porter.

The past two years have been indeed unusual ones for Middlebury. The desire for service brought on a rapid decline of our student body. Those who stayed as well as those who left have sacrificed not a little. With the coming of peace it was found quite fitting to resume the publication of a year book, that should, in so far as we were able, be a proper record of Middlebury in the past two years.

This twenty-fourth volume of the Kaleidoscope we have dedicated to those men of Middlebury who made the supreme sacrifice in the war for freedom. The futility of trying to make a book worthy of those men is obvious. In the accomplishment of our task we have labored under conditions which were quite unique but with it all we are conscious of a certain pride. Whether or not it is justified remains with you. We hope it is and that this is worthy to be the year book of our Alma Mater, for whom our love has increased because of her service in the past conflict.
Dear Mr. Moreau:

Your suggestion to dedicate the 1919-'20 Kaleidoscope to the men of Middlebury who paid the full price in the great war is very appropriate. Every one of these men I have known personally and I know they were worthy of any tribute we can pay to them. The record of our college in the war is a proud one, both for those who served under the colors and those who stood by to help Middlebury go forward, not backward, during the critical years. I wish you and your associates every success in your endeavor.

Faithfully yours,

JOHN M. THOMAS.

Class Colors: Orange and Black

F. L. Jones
Four short years ago the class of 1919 entered the portals of Middlebury College to consecrate itself to the art of acquiring an education. Undoubtedly as green a class as was ever matriculated, and as unwilling to admit the same, she soon sized up the needs of Middlebury and set nobly at work to make our college what it should be.

Our first move in this direction was to point out to the Sophomore class that WE were Boss.” As proof positive we had victories in the Hat-Scrap and on the track, besides others too numerous to mention. Thus we showed we had “pep.”

We returned our second year firmly established as the best class in college, which reputation we have maintained to the present time.

With everything running smoothly and the expectation that the enrollment would be the largest in the history of the college, our Junior year had promise of bringing a fitting reward for two years of work well done. Then came the declaration of war by the United States, and at once the class of 1919 responded nobly as in all other lesser crises. Our numbers were greatly diminished and our highest hopes were dashed to the ground. And yet the few who did return in the fall of 1917 quickly pulled themselves together and responded to the call to do the college work which lay before them. It is to those who left, ready to make even the “supreme sacrifice” if necessary that 1919 owes the deeper and firmer character which emphasized her work from that time forth. The spirit underlying the work done by those who remained was, “We want the boys ‘over there’ to be proud of what we have accomplished here.” They defended this institution with their lives. It is only just that those who remain should make this college worth their sacrifice.

The first term of our Senior year was broken up by the military life that centered around the Student Army Training Corps. Then came news of the signing of the armistice, and finally that of actual peace. The first week in January found the “good old college days” back again. From then on we have welcomed familiar faces of 1919 back to our Alma Mater. Some have returned with commissions and some without, but we receive them all gladly.

At last we have come to the brow of the hill and must plunge from its heights into the world to face life’s problems. Our record at Middlebury is clear. What is to be our record in years to come? We owe to our college which has done so much for us the supreme effort of our lives to make good. On our personal success may hang the future of our beloved Alma Mater. May our prayer be, as we leave these halls we have come to love so well, that when our short race in life is run, we may be able to look back and say sincerely with Saint Paul: “I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith.”
Class of 1919

LEON MCKINLEY ADKINS, KAP
“Stretch”
Ticonderoga, New York.
Ticonderoga High School; President Freshman Debating Society (1); Class Hockey (2, 3); Merrill Prize Speaker (2); Class Baseball (3); Chairman Junior Prom Committee (3); Class Basketball (3, 4); President Apollo Club (4); Second Lieutenant U. S. Infantry.

"Stretch" is a quiet lad, but he gets there just the same. His greatest dissipation seems to be giving co-eds a ride in his Ford, which he manipulates without the use of objectionable language; quite an art. He intends to be a minister and we predict that he will one day put "Billy" Sunday out of business.

"Every inch a man, even not considering his feet."

WALLACE CHASE BASCOM
“Base”
Hollis, New Hampshire.
Hollis High School; Apollo Club (3).

A philosopher of the first magnitude. Quiet on the outside but within what streams of thought rush to and fro. Those who have had the privilege of listening to him in the seclusion of his own study while he discourses on ethics, etc., say he is the coming philosopher. After his graduation we expect to see him holding down Doc’s chair.

“God, give us men!”

DON ALEXANDER BELDEN, KAP
“Don”
Akron, Ohio.
Akron West High School; Manager Class Hockey (1, 2); Sophomore Rules Committee (2); Interfraternity Council (2, 3, 4); Secretary and Treasurer (3); Manager Gym Team (2); Class President (3); Social Committee of Union (2); Chairman (3); Sergeant Co. B, V. V. M.; Second Lieutenant C. A. R. C.; Sages; Class Day Committee (4).

“Don” is a loyal son of Middlebury and one who finds no fault with the co-educational system. It is rumored that Mrs. Pearsons charges him rent on the sofa at her home. However that may be, “Don” seems to be always welcome there. We heartily recommend him as a good friend, and a fine fellow.

“I love a lassie.”
JAMES PHILIP BOWER, ΔΚΕ
“Brainey”
Arlington, Massachusetts.

Arlington High School; Worcester Academy; Varsity Football (1, 2, 3); Captain and Coach (3); Varsity Baseball (1); Class Football (1, 2), Captain (2); Class Baseball (1, 2), Captain (2); Class Hockey (1, 2, 3); Class Basketball (4); Track Team (1, 3); Alchemist; Delta Tau.

“Brainey” is our gridiron star par excellence. He has contributed a large share to making Midd a football opponent to be respected. He is the best player in the state and when we hear his high squeaky voice calling signals we know that it is Midd’s day.

HERBERT CECIL BROKENSHIRE, ΔΥ
“Brokey”
Charleston, South Carolina.

Pawtucket High School; Varsity Football Squad (1, 2); Varsity Gym Team (1); Sophomore Rules Committee (2); Alchemists; Delta Tau; Fussers’ Club (1, 2, 4).

“Brokey” reminds one of a ray of sunshine, as he flits around the campus, displaying his brilliant hair, flashing smile and cheerful disposition. We know of only one fact that could count against him, namely, the fact that he is a minister’s son. In spite of such a handicap he is bound to be a winner. He would be a heart-breaker on the hill if he once favored it with a visit. Incidentally he crossed the Atlantic nine times while wearing the Navy Blue.

“There is sunshine in my soul.”

WILLIAM RAYMOND CANTY, ΧΨ
“Bill”
Rutland, Vermont.

Rutland High School; Dean Academy; Class Football (1), Captain (1); Varsity Squad (1); Class Track (1, 2); Varsity Track (1); Glee Club (1, 2, 4), Manager (4); Banjo-Mandolin Club (1, 2, 4); Varsity Football (2, 3, 4), Captain (4); Alchemists; Student Council; Delta Tau.

“Bill” is fearfully and wonderfully made. His talents are not confined to one or two lines. He is successful as a football artist, as manager of a Glee Club or as proprietor of a book store. He has a firm and decided step that betokens a resolute purpose. Inside of a rather stern exterior we believe there is a warm heart.

“I am monarch of all I survey.”
HENRY DWIGHT CARLE, KΔP

"Hank"

Hyde Park, Massachusetts.

Hyde Park High School; Class Basketball Manager (3, 4); Class Baseball (2, 3); First Lieutenant Middlebury Battalion, V. V. M. (3); Commencement Invitation Committee; Sergeant Chemical Warfare Service; High Honors in History.

This energetic specimen stands only about five feet in his stockings, but like Napoleon and Stephen A. Douglas, he is all dynamite. He can tell you how to kid along the History department for high honors. He has an iron will and a brazen determination. Like all men possessing his aggressive character, he is bound to succeed.

"But screw your courage to the sticking-place, And we'll not fail."

—Shakespeare.

STUART DUNSHEE DOUGLAS, ΔKE

"Doug"

Quincy, Illinois.

Central High School, Scranton, Pa.; Associate Business Manager of Campus (2); Manager Class Track (3); War Service Committee (3); Junior Prom Committee (3); Alchemists (3), President (4); Treasurer of Union (4); Manager Varsity Baseball (4); Chairman Cane Committee (4); Athletic Council (4); Senior Ball Committee (4).

His vocabulary is endless and his energy boundless, but ah! we mustn't lapse into poetry in speaking of this practical man of affairs. He is probably one of the busiest men in college and is rarely seen on the campus except going to or coming from the Chem Building. He is always engaged in some task worthy of his great ability whether it is managing the Campus, Baseball, or inventing the elixir of life in the Chem laboratory. If he were not so busy he might realize his aspirations with the fair sex.

"O wonder of wonders, can it be! A man among us—such as he."

CLARENCE EDWIN HAMILTON

"Hammie"

Knowlesville, New York.

Medina High School; Manager Varsity Football (4); Student Council (4); Waubanakee (4); Kaleidoscope Board (4).

Shades of Julius Caesar, Napoleon and Charlie Chaplin, stand back! You must make room for your superior, Hamilton the Great. We have a feeling of our extreme inability to adequately describe this man's attainments. His wisdom exceeds that of Solomon. He is a parliamentarian and constitutional lawyer of national repute. Congress will in a few short years be dominated by his resistless logic.

"Dauntless he stood before the multitude, and Spoke words ne'er heard before."
FRANKLIN ADRIAN HEBARD, ΔY

“Heb”

Southbridge, Massachusetts.

Hitchock Academy; Class Track (1, 2, 3); Varsity Track Squad (1, 3); Freshman Debating Club (1); Class Baseball (2, 3); Vice-President Athletic Association (3); Vice-President Union (4); Class Treasurer (4); Business Manager Kaleidoscope (4); Class Day Committee (4); Sages; Secretary Interfraternity Council (4); Class Basketball (4).

“Heb is looking out for the financial end of the Kaleidoscope so we have to be careful in our statements regarding him. We know of little against him except that his noise making propensities are considerable when he is accompanied by a classmate of quite opposite proportions. He generally comes across in whatever he attempts and that is recommendation enough for any man.

“Tall and straight and like an oak, he stood.”

ROLAND CARLYLE HOLBROOK, ΚΑΡ

“Roly”

Newport, Vermont.

Central Collegiate Institute, Winnipeg, Canada; Class Baseball (2, 3); Class Hockey (2, 3); Class Basketball (3, 4), Captain (4); Second Team Basketball (3, 4), Captain (4); Manager Varsity Track (3, 4); Athletic Council (3, 4); College Band (2, 3, 4), Manager (3); Glee Club (4); College Banjo Orchestra (4); Student Council (4); War Service Committee (3); Kaleidoscope Board (4); Waubanakee; Sage; Second Lieutenant U. S. A.

You will recognize “Roly” when you see him by the pleasant smile and cordial greeting he will hand out to you. His disposition is as agreeable as sunshine on the Alps. He spends his summers with the Chautauqua and his winters “on the hill.” As a fusser he is without an equal, possessing the faculty of keeping several girls interested at the same time.

“Come, girls, and view this lad so fair.
Is he not nifty and debonair?”

FREDERICK LANGDON JONES, ΧΨ

“Freddie”

Castleton, Vermont.

Rutland High School; Class Baseball (1, 2, 3, 4); Class Basketball (1, 2, 3, 4); Varsity Track (1, 2, 3, 4), Captain (4); Second Team Basketball (3); Varsity Basketball (4), Manager (4); Class Track (1, 2, 3, 4), Captain (2, 3, 4); Tennis (4); Secretary Athletic Association (3), President (4); Inter-fraternity Council (3, 4); Vice-President Union (3), President (4); President Outing Club (2, 3, 4); Class President (4); Sage; Waubanakee.

By his actions and escapades “Freddie” might well be taken for a member of that organization whose motto is, “Be Prepared.” He is always ready for anything from stirring up the Library (provided “Heb” is present) to winning a track meet. As a singer he would make a good charcoal dealer. Of his numerous other talents we will say little, except that he is not quite Phi Beta Kappa, but is contented with the thought of wearing his brother’s “sister pin.”

“Little, but oh! my.”
PAUL ELI PITKIN, KΔP

"Paul"
Marshfield, Vermont.

Goddard Seminary; First Parker Prize (1); Glee Club (1, 4); College Choir (1, 2, 3); First Merrill Prize (2); Treasurer Union (4).

Here is another loyal Vermonter who can deliver the goods. Paul has had a wide and varied career both as schoolmaster and agricultural expert. He is a man and his friends are confident that his deep, scholarly mind will make its influence felt. His one bad habit is a good one,—sticking to a point until made to see otherwise.

"Honesty is the best policy."

ROBERT BATELDER SHEPARDSON, ΔKE

"Shep"
Reading, Massachusetts.

Reading High School; Class Baseball (1, 2); Class President (2); Student Council (3); Delta Tau.

A man of noble parts is he. He doesn't believe in blowing his own horn continually and he doesn't need to advertise his large outstanding ability to make it evident. His one bad habit is singing loudly on the campus.

"Still waters run deep."

HAROLD BUTLER TATRO, ΔKE

"Tate"
North Adams, Massachusetts.

Drury Academy; Class Football (1), Manager (1); Class Basketball (1, 2, 3), Captain (1); Class Track (1, 2, 3); Class Baseball (1, 2); Varsity Football Squad (1, 3); Varsity Track (1, 2); Varsity Basketball (3); Interfraternity Council (3); Alchemists (3); Sophomore Rules Committee (2); Vice-President Union (2).

"Tate" is one of our athletic stars and he shines brilliantly. He has a form like Apollo, and all the speed of an express train. He is Midd's Beau Brummel and could make his fortune any time, displaying the latest styles. We expect to see him doing the hero stunt in the movies after his graduation.

"A thing of beauty is a joy forever."

—Keats.
ROBERT LEROY TAYLOR

“Bob”

Jay, New York.

Troy Conference Academy; Class Football (1, 2); Varsity Football Squad (4); Sophomore Rules Committee; Junior Prom Committee; Apollo Club.

The only stories that “Bob” indulges in are Bible stories, but he has one or two of those that will furnish enough steam to keep the Rutland Railroad on time forever. “Deac’s” line is his only salvation but only a few of his professors realize that yet.

“And let two dogs beneath his window fight, He’ll close the Bible to enjoy the sight.”

HOWARD WHITMAN WATSON, ΔY

“Wattie”

Dorchester, Massachusetts.

Dorchester High School; College Choir (1, 2, 3, 4); Glee Club (1, 2, 4), Leader (4); Sophomore Hop Committee; Junior Prom Committee; Interfraternity Council (3, 4); Class Baseball (3, 4); President Union (4); Chairman Student Council (4); College Song Leader (3); Apollo Club (3, 4); Athletic Play Cast (2); Manager College Book Store (3); Captain, Middlebury Battalion, V. V. M. (3); Senior Ball Committee; Alchemists; Sages; Waubankees; Second Lieutenant Infantry, U. S. A.

“Wattie.” Did you ever see him sore? No, he is always in good humor, which accounts for his popularity. Although he has many business and social functions he always proceeds with serene confidence. He is always ready to forgive and console his roommate when he wanders from the straight and narrow path, and on the other hand receive the same from another source.

“Although I may get very old, And all my brains get dusty, ’Tis fitting now that you be told, That I shall ne’er get Rusty.”

GERTRUDE RHUA BURDITT

“Gertie”

Pittsford Mills, Vermont.

Pittsford High School; Musical Association (1, 2, 3); Home Economics Club (2); Cercle Français (2); Civics Club (2, 3, 4); Apollo Club (3).

Gertrude is the language “shark” for the Senior class, and is thinking of becoming an interpreter in the government service. But language is not the only field in which she shines; she is an expert in planning “spreads” as all those who were present at a certain surprise party on February 13th will testify.
MILDRED H. CADY, πφπφ
Middlebury, Vermont.

Middlebury High School; Class Basketball (1, 2, 3), Captain (3); Home Economics Club (3, 4).

"Somewhat undecided, anything to relieve the monotony will do." This is the philosophy of one of the most literary girls in the senior class. She spends a great part of her time engaged in Webster, Mass. She also loves poetry, her favorite lyric being, "Douglas, Douglas, Tender and True." In spite of this intellectual tendency we all like her heaps; she's absolutely square which is more than you can say of a whole sphere of folks.

RUTH EMERY CANN, ΔΔΔ
"Rusty"
Waterbury, Connecticut.

Crosby High School; I. K. L.; Captain Basketball (1); Class Basketball (2); Secretary-Treasurer Women's Musical Association (2); Membership Committee (2); Sophomore Hop Committee (2); College Choir (2, 4); Assistant Editor-in-Chief of Kaleidoscope (4); Cap and Gown Committee (4).

Back from Michigan and New York, our Rusty is some girl! As she is Kaleidoscope censor we can not reveal her dark past. Too bad! Her voice and her "uke" won her instant fame and "with all her faults, we love her still."

RUTH ELIZABETH CLARK, AX
"Clark"
Rutland, Vermont.

Rutland High School; Class Vice-President (1); Member Student Government Council (1); Civics Club (1, 2); I. K. L.; Silver Bay Delegate (2); Secretary-Treasurer Silver Bay Club (3); Membership Committee (3, 4); Captain Senior Volley Ball (4); Varsity Volley Ball (4); Home Economics Club (3); Banshee.

After four years at Middlebury, Ruth has decided that her forte is Physical Education, and she is enthusiastically taking all the gym work available. She is usually heard before she is seen, as she is always calling for "El-la" and never finding her. Charlie Chaplin's most life-like imitator, and our prize comedian.
RUTH MARION CLOUGH, PiBPhi
"Charity"
Plattsburg, New York.
Plattsburg High School; I. K. L.; Deutscher Verein (2, 3); Apollo Club (3, 4).
Ruth has earned a wide reputation as Midd’s champion "crabber," for she always expresses her opinions forcefully. Perhaps she has developed this tendency from frequent tete-a-tetes in Pearsons Social Hall. She is as true as steel, however, and we like her for her frankness.

HAZEL ELIZABETH COBURN, PiBPhi
Littleton, New Hampshire.
Littleton High School; I. K. L.; Musical Association (2); President Home Economics Club (4); Banshee; Class Day Committee (4).
"Good things come done up in small packages." Our class advertisement for Mellen’s Food. She’s little, but decided—Oh! decided did I say? Well, there’s a reason. "I guess I shan’t be run over. I’ll tell him just where to get off and just how to do it." Hazel is all right though, in spite of her obstinacy, and we all like her beaucouply much.

SYLVIA MAY DERRY
"Dearie"
Putney, Vermont.
Brattleboro High School, Vt.; Student Government Council (2); Secretary of Student Government (3); Vice-President Student Government (4); House Chairman Pearsons (4); Silver Bay Club (4); Civics Club (1, 3, 4); Apollo Club (4); Kaleidoscope (4).
"Dearie" is one splendid girl and her friends are many. She understands the workings of Student Government from A to Z and as House Chairman of Pearsons she has trained us to remember quiet hours most of the time. Her chief delight is in extolling her native state for "Here’s where Vermont comes in."
MARGUERITE DYER, φBK
Middlebury, Vermont.
Middlebury High School; Musical Association (1); Deutscher Verein (2, 3); College Choir (2, 3, 4).
"Music hath power to charm a toiler, But mine hath power to bust a boiler." And that's not all! Doth she not "hold up her head and strut in her gait" while we still gaze and wonder "that one small head can carry all she knows," for Marguerite excels in everything she undertakes.

LAURA MARY FALES, ΠΒΦ
"Never"
Detroit, Michigan.
Medway High School, Mass.; I. K. L.; Chairman Walking Committee (2); Civics Club (2); Deutscher Verein (2, 3); President (4); Treasurer War Service Committee (4); Class Secretary (4); Apollo Club (4); Kaleidoscope Board (4); Membership Committee (4); Invitation Committee (4); Banshee; Fire Chief (4).
"I would do anything for thee, oh food and sleep, but die." Never is very much afraid of being written up as studious for fear the girls will believe it and the faculty won't. We are too used to your pack of cards, your love of entertainment, and your motto "Be not righteous overmuch" to worry over any brain fever. However, you come from Mass. and what more (?) can this world offer? O, measles!

ELLA FLORENCE FELLOWS, AX, φBK
"El-la-la"
Exeter, New Hampshire.
Robinson Seminary; I. K. L.; Executive Council Civics Club (1, 2, 3); Sophomore Hop Committee (2); Second Horace Prize (2); Musegahe Club (1, 2); Musical Association (3, 4); Associate Editor Campus (2, 3); Apollo Club (3, 4); Home Economics Club (2, 3, 4); Cercle Français (2); Secretary-Treasurer Civics Club (3); Assistant Editor Campus (4); Acting Editor-in-Chief (4); Pan Hellenic Council (3, 4); Scholarship Committee (4); President Civics Club (4).
Determined, Dignified and Disdainful, that's Ella! Her chief delights are studying, gossiping, and writing letters. However, don't mistake her reserve for snobbishness, for when she forgets to act bored, she's a jolly good friend and we like her heaps.
HAZEL FLORENCE GROVER, ΔΔΔ
"Red"
Middletown Springs, Vermont.
Granville High School, N. Y.; I. K. L.; Silver Bay Delegate (1); Deutscher Verein (1, 2); Y. W. C. A. Cabinet (2, 3); Class Basketball (1, 2, 3); Chairman Scholarship Committee (4); Pan Hellenic Council (4); Gvics Club (1, 2, 3); Associate Editor Campus (3, 4); College Choir (4); Musical Association (1, 2, 3).
(One High School Hopeful to Another) "Who's that little girl you just spoke to?" (Second H. S. H.) "Little girl nothing; that's the Biology teacher!" Never mind, Hazel, we think you're just right. Between "that fiendish Chem," the Campus and aforesaid teaching, she's kept pretty busy, but she's always ready for anything in the line of excitement.

MADELINE ESTHER HALFORD, AX
Pittsfield, Massachusetts.
Pittsfield High School; College Choir (3, 4); College Orchestra (3, 4); Musical Association (3, 4); Musegahe Club (3, 4); Silver Bay Delegate (3); Volley Ball team (4); Basketball (4); House Chairman Hillcrest (4); Y. W. C. A. Cabinet (4).
"Halford" came to us from Mount Holyoke, but since becoming a daughter of Midd, she has proven herself a valuable one. We confess, however, that her loyalty is somewhat divided between Midd and Dartmouth.

LOUETTA AUGUSTA HAYNES, ΣΚ
"Loutie"
Hardwick, Vermont.
Hardwick Academy; I. K. L.; House Chairman Hillside (1); Class Basketball (1); Treasurer Athletic Association (2); Third Horace Prize (2); College Choir (2, 3, 4); Y. W. C. A. Cabinet (3, 4); Silver Bay Delegate (3); Vice-President Gvics Club (4); President Pan-Hellenic Council (4); Banshee.
Who would suspect that our "Loutie" was once one of "those awful Hillside freshmen." She sure was! And she tried mighty hard to keep the rest in the "straight and narrow." Have you read her treatise on "Early Rising and Dieting" with herself as the worthy experimenter? It is a corker!
RUTH GERTRUDE HOLLAND

"Dutchie"

Shrewsbury, Massachusetts.

Shrewsbury High School; I. K. L.; Secretary Y. W. C. A. (2); Silver Bay Delegate (2); Civics Club (2); Y. W. C. A. Ca...net (3); Silver Bay Club (3, 4); War Service Committee (3, 4); President Y. W. C. A. (4); Student Government Council (4).

Did you ever know a finer girl than our Dutchie? There's not a virtue in the universe that she does not possess. We hear also that her patience has long been tried by her erratic roommate, so she is well prepared for future struggles in Turkey. "Early to bed, early to rise;" "happy as the day is long!"

MABEL LOUISE HOYT

Oneonta, New York.

Oneonta State Normal School; Musical Association (2, 3); Athletic Council (4); Apollo Club (3, 4); Home Economics (2, 3); Civics Club (2, 3, 4); Silver Bay Delegate (3); Y. W. C. A. Cabinet (4); Class Day Committee (4).

Here's the girl with the great mind and artistic temperament. She can tell you every fact about Bolshevism in Russia, or make the best posters for Y. W. C. A. that anyone ever saw. There's nothing the matter with her tongue for she will talk hours at a time unless you suggest a game of Five Hundred. "She that riseth late must trot all day."

DOROTHY MABEL HUTCHINSON

"Dot" "Hutch"

Auburn, Maine.

Hochon Academy.

Hutch can hand you a fairly good line on most anything. Her Main (e) subject is "What I'll amount to after I leave Vermont." 'I don't belong to the fussers' club—life is so short and I have so much to do' (duty sometimes calling her S. A. T. C.-ward).
MARGARET SHAY JEFFORDS, ΠΒΦ
"Paddy"
Chelsea, Vermont.
Montpelier Seminary; Student Government Council (3); Delegate to Student Government Convention at Syracuse (3); Treasurer Y. W. C. A. (3); Pan-Hellenic Council (3, 4); President Student Government (4); Y. W. C. A. Cabinet (4); Scholarship Committee (4); Banshee.

Paddy returned to us in September as Mrs. Jeffords. We welcomed her as our only married woman and she continues to hold that distinction. As President of Student Government she has had more than her share of trouble, but she bears it well. A loyal friend is Paddy, always the same to everyone, so we can forgive her if her thoughts do center on "mail from France."

ELIZABETH GREENLEAF JOHNSON, ΔΔΑ
"Johnny"
Newburyport, Massachusetts.
Newburyport High School; I. K. L.; Basketball (1); Musical Association (1, 2, 3); Secretary of Class (2, 3); Civics Club (1, 2, 3, 4); Home Economics Club (2, 3, 4); Apollo Club (3, 4); Kaleidoscope Board (4); Treasurer Student Government (4); Banshee.

Meekness here? No! Mirth and mischief personified. However, when she squelches us, we gracefully withdraw. She never studies on account of many "disturbing elements" about her constantly. Class jester and clown, Elizabeth Greenleaf Johnson!

ELEANOR GARRETSON LAYTON, ΣΚ, ΦΒΚ
New York City.
Morris High School; I. K. L.; Musical Association (1, 2, 3); Deutscher Verein (2); Class Basketball (1, 2, 3, 4); Captain Basketball (4); Civics Club (1, 2, 3, 4); Campus Board (3, 4); Athletic Council (4); Manager Basketball (4); Point Committee (4); Class Volley Ball (4).

"I want to know," Eleanor came from the big city of New York, but there's much she does not understand. Her questioning disposition will get her somewhere all right. It has already been the means of getting her Phi Beta Kappa. She is intensely interested in travel; perhaps there is a reason.
MILDRED MARTIN, AX
"Mil"
Middlebury, Vermont.
Middlebury High School; Home Economics Club (2, 3, 4).
"Milly" does not live on the hill, but we wish she did. She is just the best pal; all kinds of fun and what she does not know about Home Economics is not worth knowing. Those who have been to Mil's feed never will forget how good the things were.

DOROTHY NASH, 2K
"Dot"
Webster, Massachusetts.
Bartlett High School; Civics Club (1, 2); Vice-President Home Economics (2); Membership Committee (2, 3); Musical Association (1, 2, 3); Leader Musegah Club (2, 3, 4); College Orchestra (2, 3, 4); Junior Prom Committee (3); Home Economics Club (2, 3, 4); Vice-President Class (4); Chairman Invitation Committee (4); Banshee.

Dot Nash? Why, everybody knows her; but we'll give her a short recommendation. In spite of her two worst failings—irrepressible humor and inability to keep quiet—Dot is becoming quite sedate, and is even thinking of entering Y. W. C. A. work next year.

ANNA LUCIA NOVAK
Middlebury, Vermont.
Middlebury High School; Class Basketball (1, 2, 3, 4), Captain (2); Deutscher Verein (2, 3); Basketball M. C.; Apollo Club (4).

Anna can certainly play basketball but we who play against her feel sometimes as though she also might play football. She excels in all athletics and is about as brilliant in her classes. In fact she is an all 'round sport and a loyal supporter of 1919.
HELEN VIVIAN PAINE, ΣΚ
Worcester, Massachusetts.

Springfield High School; Musegahe Club (1, 2, 3, 4); Musical Association (1, 2, 3, 4); Home Economics Club (2, 3, 4); Vice-President (3); Sophomore Hop Committee (2); Cercle Français (2, 3); Apollo Club (4); Banshee.

Really, she is not so bad as her name implies. Helen is usually rather quiet, except when she gets terribly excited, and expresses her thoughts more in music than in words. The only thing we wonder about is, "What do roses signify, especially when they are from a friend across the sea?" Her favorite maxim is "Never be early to breakfast when you can get in at 7:29."

SYLVIA TERESE PASTENE, ΠΒΦ
Brookline, Massachusetts.

Dean Academy.

"Who is Sylvia? What is she? That all the swains adore her?" She left us her junior year, but, once a Middite always a Middite, so here she is with us again. How third floor will miss her next year with "Helen, Helen, where are you? I'm so excited!" etc., etc.

GERTRUDE AGNES PERKINS, ΔΔΔ
"Perk"
Hardwick, Vermont.

Hardwick Academy; I. K. L.; Class Basketball (1, 2, 3); Home Economics Club (2, 3, 4); Civics Club (3); Vice-President Women's Athletic Association (4).

Here's to Perk, the peppy! She can hand you a great line, for her tongue is as agile as her athletic body. They tell us also, that she is some housekeeper and a Math shark. Can you beat that Combination?
ETHEL FRANCES PUTNAM, ΦΒΚ

"Put"

Webster, Massachusetts.
Bartlett High School; I. K. L.; Civics Club (1, 2, 3, 4); Deutscher Verein (2, 3), Secretary-Treasurer (4); Apollo Club (4); Banhees.

Although Put is the proud possessor of a well-earned Phi Beta Kappa key, she has found time to make hosts of friends in Middlebury. There are a few things in the world that please her more than a perfect recitation in Spanish class, namely, a good game of Five Hundred and an audience that will listen while she extols the virtues of her two brothers.

THELMA RUTH PUTNAM

"Ted"

Springfield, Vermont.
Springfield High School; Civics Club (1, 3, 4); Apollo Club (3); Musical Association (2, 3); Silver Bay Club (4); Silver Bay Delegate (3); Chairman Publicity Committee Y. W. C. A. (4); Volley Ball (4).

"Ted" reminds us of Horace, Book I, Ode I, for she almost hits the stars with her exalted head! Another artist in our midst—she can easily make her fortune painting Japanese scenes. Her specialties are Math and Chemistry, and—roommates!

DOROTHEA ESTE REYNOLDS, AX

"Dot"

Rutland, Vermont.
Rutland High School; Home Economics Club (2, 3); Civics Club (3, 4); Musical Association (1, 2, 3); Apollo Club (3, 4); Chairman of Class Day Committee (4).

D is for Disgust over History and Poly. Sci.,
O is for Opinion— with that she's never shy,
T is for her Teaching; by it she'll sure win fame,
For our little Dottie is always in the game.
Mabel Pauline Rising, ΦBK
Brandon, Vermont.

Brandon High School; Apollo Club (3, 4), Salutatorian

Mabel is class mathematician and is authority on Rome. She is fond of the library, so we hear. At any rate you can find her there several times a day. She’s a genuine student, but not of books alone.

Nellie Margaret Roberts
“Bob”
West Pawlet, Vermont.

Castleton Normal School.

Behold the prodigy of the Chemistry Department! There is no limit to her imagination and consequently do not believe everything she tells you. She’s clever and she’s wise.

Barbara Russell, AX
“Bobbie”
Rutland, Vermont.

Rutland High School; Associate Business Manager Campus (2); Cercle Francais (2, 3, 4); Class Basketball (3, 4); Assistant Business Manager Campus (3, 4); Class Volley Ball (4); Executive Chairman Home Economics Club (4); Banshee.

Barbara had just convinced us that she was truly grown up and then she upset all our convictions by developing a case of chicken-pox during her Senior year. Oh, Bobbie! She is a versatile young Miss to say the least; and between “Campus” Business, Basketball, Home Economics Club, etc., she leads a busy life.
Delsey Ruth Severy
Brandon, Vermont.

Brandon High School; House Chairman Hillside (4); President of Musical Association (4); Captain Basketball (4). D is for Decision; What she thinks is a fact to be put on file, R is for Rules; At Hillside she keeps them in excellent style, S is for Standard; Only one indeed—there's nothing Ells(e) worth while.

Helen Sophia Bullard Stilphen, IIIBΦ
Swanton, Vermont.

Swanton High School; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet (1, 2, 4); Doshisha (1); Basketball (1, 3, 4); Silver Bay Delegate (2); Musical Association (2, 3, 4); Vice-President (3); Home Economics Club (2, 3, 4); Secretary and Treasurer (3); Vice-President Class (3); Vice-President Y. W. C. A. (4); Chairman Point Committee (4); Junior Prom Committee (3); Cap and Gown Committee (4); Banshee.

Three in One—Clever, Candid, Curious! Helen knows every one or every one's brother from here to nowhere. She has had a part in every thing since her arrival, for generally speaking she is—generally speaking.

Marion Elizabeth Swan, ΔΔΔ
“Pipney”
Glens Falls, New York.

Glens Falls High School; I. K. L.; Deutscher Verein (1, 2); Junior Prom Committee (3); Silver Bay Club (2, 3, 4).

“My zoul!” Here she is, the lady who makes of the English language an unknown tongue. Maybe you think she is not a talker—if so, just attend one of those “gab fests” behind closed doors in room 22, Pearsons, and find out for yourself.
ALICE DREW TOMLINSON, AX
“Tommie”
Woodbridge, Connecticut.
New Haven High School; Civics Club (1, 2, 3, 4); Musical Association (1, 2, 3); Class Vice-President (2); Home Economics Club (2, 3, 4); Silver Bay Delegate (3); Junior Prom Committee (3); Y. W. C. A. Cabinet (4); Invitation Committee (4); Banshee.
Almost every evening and always on Sunday, we watch Tommie “don” her most winsome smile to greet—I wonder whom? “Tom” always was a lover of long hikes and picnics and whenever we ask “Where shall we go?,” she answers “Beldens.”

ALICE WARD WILSON, IIΒΦ
“Woody”
Bristol, Vermont.
Beeman Academy, New Haven, Vt.; Freshman Banquet Speaker (1); Student Government Council (1); Silver Bay Delegate (1); Vice-President Athletic Association (2); Musical Association (1, 2); Y. W. C. A. Cabinet (2, 4); President Silver Bay Club (4); Apollo Club (4).
“This woman hath nine lives like a cat.” The only rival of Edison’s victrola, with a varied collection of records. Although she carries eight subjects, teaches High School, and talks twenty-three hours a day, she really hopes to graduate in June. And “Say, kids,” she adores pickles.

PRISCILLA ELEANOR WOOD, ΦΒΚ
“Pris”
Fair Haven, Vermont.
Fair Haven High School; Cercle Français (2); Apollo Club (3, 4); Musical Association (2, 3, 4); Civics Club (2, 3, 4).
“Knowledge personified but sawed off!” She is a marvel of compactness and a veritable walking encyclopedia. One may hear her giggle in Pearsons any time of day and seemingly she is much more ready for a joke than a book, golden keys to the contrary.

Class History

With the opening of Mead Chapel and Hepburn Hall back in September, 1916, came another event that will go down in the history of our college,—the entrance of one hundred and thirty-four freshmen known as the Class of 1920. Not only will its date of birth be recorded in the annals of Middlebury but also the deeds that the present Junior Class has performed, in these three short, but active years.

Like all other classes we entered with the word "green" all over our countenances, but it did not take our superiors long to learn that appearances were deceiving. We started right in by being seen and not heard and by obeying all the letters of the law. When the time finally came for us to be heard the Sophomores suffered dire discomfort. The Hat Scrap fell to us with ease and our prowess in athletics was soon recognized, and especially after we had placed six first string men on the 1917 Baseball Team.

Sophomore days found the class greatly reduced in numbers as many of our classmates had answered the call to the colors. Those of us who remained behind carried on the work with the same spirit that had marked 1920 as a leader. Although our ranks were thinned, we showed the freshmen the proper way to conduct themselves and also kept our prestige as being an all around class by winning two of the three championships.

Nineteen Hundred and Twenty can well be proud of her war record, being fourth among all the classes of the college. Thirty-seven men left their books to enter some branch of the service and two of our number have received citation for bravery under fire. One of the gold stars on the college service flag stands for the supreme sacrifice made by Ludger Tousant.

With the end of the war 1920 is looking forward to the speedy return of all her sons. Since the new year our ranks have been strengthened by the return of nine men.
Class of 1920

PHILIP DEANE AIINES, AX$F
"Sol"
Middlebury, Vermont.
Middlebury High School; Second Football Team (1); Baseball Squad (1); Varsity Football (2); Class Basketball (2); Varsity Basketball Squad (2); Student Council (3); Inter-Fraternity Council (3); Delta Tau; Sages.
"Sol" is always out of luck. He has seen the interior of more hospitals than any other man in college and is proud of the record. He is always around when there is anything going on. He played a good game at Football for two years and we hope that he will be out with the squad again next year.

WILLIAM SAVAGE BRACKETT, DKE
"Bill"
New Britain, Connecticut.
New Britain High School; Class Football (1, 2); Varsity Football Squad (2); Student Council (3); Mandolin Club (1, 3), Leader (3); Class President (3).
"Bill's" idea of a good time is to have his old banjo-mandolin, a nice easy chair, and a dormitory to fill with music. But you will have to look a long time to find anyone to beat him when it comes to real "Jazz." "Bill" used to enjoy K. P. and fatigue during the S. A. T. C. and it was due to his help and early rising that this movement was so successful at Midd.
"On with the Dance."

DAVID JOSEPH BREEN
"Red"
New York City.
Bryant High School; Transfer from Colgate University, 1917; Varsity Football (2).
"Red" started his college career at Colgate but came to Midd a year later. Perhaps life was a little rough on his constitution at this much heard of institution, for one would gain that impression if he could see some of his antics. Like all persons blessed with brilliant hair and a Gaelic temperament Red has a large heart.
"Erin go Bragh"
HASKINS BISHOP CANFIELD, ΔΚΕ

“Canny”
Somerville, New Jersey.

Somerville High School; Class Hockey (1); Class Baseball (1); Class Track (2); Outing Club Team (1, 2); Class President (2); Junior Prom Committee (3); Secretary Athletic Council (3); Delta Tau; Sages; Waubanakee.

“Canny” came to college a rather unsophisticated youth, but his life at Midd has developed him into a wise man of the world. At first he was rather generous in distributing his attentions to the various girls’ dormitories but now he treads the straight and narrow path. He’ll ne’er be poor so long as he has his Sou.

“A model of a man, A perfect 36.”

FREDERICK HENRY CARPENTIER, ΔΥ

“Ted”
Rutland, Vermont.

Rutland High School; College Band (1, 2, 3), Manager (3); Outing Club Team (2); Sophomore Hop Committee; Junior Week Committee; Class Baseball (2); Alchemist; Sages.

You would never suspect that “Ted” hails from Rutland, yet he is well known there as the guy who broke into the bakery and stole a raisin from a roll. The culprit was finally discovered and the Mayor changed his Baggage Master’s hat, looked grave, and sentenced “Ted” to Middlebury. He asked us not to tell more of his escapades here so that his folks may expect him to finish college in due time.

SAMUEL COHEN

“Sam”
Newark, New Jersey.

Barringer High School; Class Football (2); Class Basketball (2); Sophomore Rules Committee.

He has a chorus girl lisp that is the envy of all the women. When he starts to elucidate in class you are reminded of a dam with water trickling through in spots. You are afraid that if said dam should ever break the whole room would be flooded with intelligence. Sam constantly advises his brother: “Willie come here,” “I say Willie,” “Don’t let them kid you Willie.” Sam’s most noticeable features are his pedal extremities which are generously constructed.

“A land-sailor from Great Lakes.”
Hollis Raymond Cooley
“Perk”
Randolph, Vermont.

Randolph High School; Outing Club Team (1, 2); Class Football (2); Varsity Football Squad (2); Class Track (2); Second Merrill Prize (2); Treasurer Y. M. C. A. (2); Glee Club (3); Executive Committee Neutral Organization (3); War Service Committee (2); Apollo Club (3); Junior Play Cast (3).

This slow, moderate specimen of humanity hails from Randolph Center. He is “Perkins the Second” when it comes to Mathematics and his keen rivalry with the Professor was wondered at by all.

“Deeds not Words.”

Guy Omeron Coolidge, ΔY
“Guy”
Rutland, Vermont.

Rutland High School; Glee Club (1, 2, 3); College Quartet (3); College Choir (3); Double Quartet (3); Apollo Club (3).

Can run the scale to high C with all sorts of variations in sharps, flats and furnished rooms. We understand that his father operates a garage and wonder if Guy could not be used for blowing up tires. But when all is said and done he’s a good fellow. He will probably star in the musical comedy, “O You Guy.”

“Hark! what sweet sounds break upon my ear?”

MacLeod Lovell Douthit
“Mac”
Petersham, Massachusetts.

Petersham High School; College Orchestra (1); College Band (1, 2, 3), Leader (3).

“Mac” can be seen (never heard) on the campus. He is leader of the Middlebury College Silver Cornet Brass Band, and when he waves his baton various and sundry are the sounds forthcoming. It is melodious, mellifluous, and nerverackulous.

“And the Band played on.”
HAROLD DEWEY ELLSWORTH
"Ells"
Lake George, New York.
Lake George High School; Alchemists (2, 3); Member of American Chemical Society. Introducing the future Assistant Professor of Chemistry. He spends all of his time experimenting with this formula: \( AgNO_3 + NaCl = AgCl + NaNO_3 \) which means silver nitrate + sodium chloride = silver chloride + sodium nitrate, which means Studious Nuisance plus Scientific Chatter equals Severy’s Calls plus Steady Neighborliness. To produce a chemical substance to meet the food demand so that two can live as cheaply as one is the chief object of his thought.

RAYMOND KELLOGG FARNHAM, ΔKE
"Ray"
Shoreham, Vermont.
Middlebury High School; Transfer from Colgate 1917; Varsity Football Squad (2, 3); Class Track (2, 3); Kaleidoscope Board (3); Alchemist; Sages. Another of Colgate’s products after a year at that place known so well for its “pep.” This man should have stayed there longer and gained more of the elixir of life. He is quiet and unassuming and we hope that Middlebury will yet be able to revive some of this latent quality. However his record on the gridiron and track is enviable.

PERCY EARL FELLOWS, ΚΔΡ
"Perc"
Derby, Vermont.
Derby Academy; Campus Board (2, 3); Apollo Club (3). Biology 12 is this student’s chief delight as here he can ask as many questions as he likes. The theories and examples that he brings forth show that he has made a lifelong study of the subject. “Perc” also made some study of artillery and was prepared to give the Boche his best when the end of hostilities brought him back to us.
ALAN WINSLOW FURBER, ΔY
“Al” “Furb”
Brookline, Massachusetts.
Dorchester High School; Class Football (2); Class Track (2); Glee Club (1, 3); Double Quartet (1); Banjo Orchestra (2, 3); College Choir (1, 2, 3); Cheer Leader (1); Freshman Reception Committee (2, 3); First Lieutenant V. V. M. (2); Chairman Junior Prom Committee; Sages.
“Al” is Midd’s Vernon Castle. His ability in the light fantastic tripping art ranges all the way from the “Shimmey” to the “Dare-Devil-Flip.” As we watch his death-defying movements on the dance floor, we wonder he does not get his feet mixed up with the streamers overhead. Did you ever hear him sing? Seldom have we heard a voice with so little sweetness but so great volume. It sounds like the Dutch Horn in Schneider’s Band. He rooms in Painter, but if you really want him in a hurry, call Hillcrest first.

“His one bad habit—bashfulness.”

SAMUEL Ginsburg
“Gins”
Waterbury, Connecticut.
Crosby High School; Class Football (1, 2); Class Basketball (1, 2, 3), Captain (2); Class Baseball (1, 2); Second Team Basketball (2, 3); “Campus” Reporter (3); Junior Prom Committee (3); Alchemists.
“Sam” comes from the “Nutmeg State” and his usual happy thought is, “Don’t take any wooden nickels.” Both he and his side-kick, George, can convince one, with the proper amount of patience, that Waterbury is the finest city in the world. He has a good line and inflicts his “stuff” upon the public weekly, through the “Campus.”

“A voice beyond recall.”

ALLAN LEONARD Grant, ΔY
“General”
Bristol, Vermont.
Bristol High School; Class Football (1, 2); Assistant Manager Basketball (3).
This candidate for P. B. K. says he walked to college. Good reason perhaps—the Bristol R. R. Said thoroughfare has but until June, 1920, to exist as it will not be able to carry all this man knows on the return trip to that sleepy little village. When it comes to the Vermont brogue “General” has it; but we must hand it to anyone who can get an A from Dr. Lawrence.
ALBERT AUSTIN HOUGHTON, ΔY
“AI”
Wallingford, Connecticut.
Brigham Academy and Middlebury High School; First Merrill Prize (2); Glee Club (3); Waubanakee.

Don’t make this man laugh for he will lose his dignity immediately. It takes little to change him from the sublime to the ridiculous. As Sergeant-Major he also took charge of the guard and took great joy in impressing the rookies with his knowledge of the subject.

“Squads East; March.”

WILLIAM ALLEN HUGGARD, ΔY
“Bill”
Brookfield, Vermont.

Randolph High School; College Choir (1, 2, 3); College Orchestra (1, 2); College Band (1, 2); Glee Club (1, 3); Quartet (3); War Service Committee (2); Secretary Y. M. C. A. (1), Vice-President (2); “Campus” Reporter (1, 2); Parker Prize Speaker (1); Merrill Prize Speaker (2); Kaleidoscope Board (3); Junior Play Cast (3).

Dignified looks are often deceiving—so with Bill. He retires usually at 8 p.m. in order to keep his youthful bloom. He occasionally takes a few hours from his sleep to visit Hillside. Bill’s future career will be that of a billing clerk. From Webster defined as follows: To take charge of Billings.

HARRY ELMER JENNE, ΔΣΦ
“Jen”
Newport, Vermont.

Newport High School; Varsity Football Squad (1); Class Football (1, 2); Class Baseball (1, 2); Captain (2); Varsity Baseball Squad (1, 2); Varsity Gym Team (1, 2); Class Basketball (1, 2, 3); Captain (2); Varsity Basketball (3); Class Treasurer (1); Sophomore Rules Committee (2); Sophomore Hop Committee (2); Cercle Français (2, 3); Junior Week Committee (2, 3); Band (3); Kaleidoscope Board (3); Second Lieutenant Aviation.

We are pleased to introduce “Kid” Jenne, the boy who puts the “pep” in pepper. He has never been known to remain silent for more than the ten seconds it takes him to light his pipe. He is all energy, flamboyancy, and exuberance. He ought to be with Billy Sunday as an advance promoter of Brighten-the-Corner idea. He will probably end up as an auctioneer. He is a fine fellow to know, and may Midd have many such as he.

“Every cloud will wear a rainbow,
If your heart beats right!”
JOSEPH PHILIP KASPER, ΔKE
"Joe"
New York City.
Stuyvesant High School; Glee Club (1); Class Football (1, 2); Class Baseball (1, 2); Class Track (1, 2), Captain (2); Chairman Junior Week Committee (3); Editor-in-Chief Campus (2, 3); Junior Play Cast (3); Delta Tau.

"The 'Campus' is facing a crisis"—(breathless silence).

CHARLES STANLEY KINNE, ΚΔΡ
"Stan"
West Pawlet, Vermont.
Granville High School; Sophomore Rules Committee (2); Class Baseball (1); College Band (1, 2); Class Treasurer (2); Inter-Fraternity Council (3); Vice-President Athletic Association (3); Junior Week Committee (3); Sages.

"I could not love thee, dear, so much Loved I not ice-cream more."

LINWOOD BRACKETT LAW, ΔΣΦ
"Gopher"
Morrisville, Vermont.
Peoples Academy; Class Baseball (1); War Service Committee (2); Assistant Manager Baseball (3); Interfraternity Council (3); Alchemists; Delta Tau.

"Gopher" has a firm and decided walk that belongs usually to magnates and corporation presidents. He acquired his dash and sang froid, by managing Chautauqua circuits. He is the lad that stands in front of the tent and invites attention to roasted peanuts at five cents per. He studies occasionally, but to a person of his large outstanding ability, it seems like a trivial affair.

"Ladies and gentlemen, I take pleasure in introducing——."
Owing to a printer's error? the cut of Mr. Kleinspehn has been omitted.
DAVID PHILIP LOCKLIN

"Phil" "Lock"

Richford, Vermont.

Richford High School; Class Track (2).

Introducing the man with the Sphinx smile. Phil really is humorous, but he is very careful to keep it concealed. He has not much use for the fair sex, but he surprises you terribly when he does fall. He has a great future ahead, we know. That thoughtful expression and lofty brow are bound to give results. Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, or Philosophical manager of the Universe is his future role.

"His one bad habit—wasting time."

LEON WORRICK MCFEE

"Mac"

Canajoharie, New York.

Canajoharie High School; Compiler "Our Songs and Cheers" (2); War Service Committee (3); Campus Reporter (3).

"Mac" believes in making hay while the sun shines without the use of a tin horn to advertise the fact. He's a loyal son of Midd minus the rah-rah stuff. His work on the War Service Committee proves that. You can always tell him by his walk, which is distinctive and indescribable. When you probe through the quiet exterior to the heart, you find a true friend.

"His one bad habit is wearing loud socks."

WILLIAM EDWIN MCMASTER

"Mac"

North Thetford, Vermont.

Thetford Academy; Campus Board (2, 3); Business Manager (2); Executive Committee of Neutral Organization (3); Junior Play Cast.

"Mac" is indeed hard up—he's trying to borrow a quarter to pay the rent on his reserved seat in the library. He's taking only three courses in which a thesis is required, 'nuf said. We sometimes fear that "Mac" has missed his calling, he ought to have been an illustrating agent for talking machines. Never mind, for popularity, horse-sense, and pep, you can't beat him.

"A faithful servant of Henry Wells Lawrence."
ROLAND ERNEST MC SWEENEY, AΣΦ
"Mac"
St. Johnsbury, Vermont.
St. Johnsbury Academy; Class Baseball (1, 2); Class Football (2); Manager Class Basketball (2); Sophomore Hop Committee (2); Class Secretary (3); Alchemists; Delta Tau; Sages.

The future authority in medicine and surgery. He may save your life some time with his skill, that is, he may, if you send for him and he doesn't come. He is taking all the Biology courses which instruct him in the gentle art of dissecting and even now he can dissect a dill pickle with accuracy. His study of the properties of nicotine has encouraged him to begin a crusade against its use by college professors. He says it is particularly harmful to the feebleminded (Oh, no! gentle reader, no implication intended).

"In my professional opinion, the patient has chungampus of the eye-lash."

IVAN LEBARON MANZER, ΚΔΡ
"Manz"
Jersey City, New Jersey.
Windsor High School, Vermont; College Band (1, 2, 3); Orchestra (1, 2); College Choir (2, 3); Glee Club (3); Mandolin Club (3); Junior Prom Committee; Sages.

Note his studious brow and the pained, earnest look in his eyes. He enjoys the work in his classes so greatly that he frequently repeats it. Never mind, "Manz," many good men have never been blessed with the Key, and there is hope for you. As a musician you are a knockout, and we expect to see you a matinee idol some day. Your work on the "Hill" has demonstrated your ease and suavity with the fair ones.

ARTHUR GORDON MIESSE, AΣΦ
Ridgewood, New Jersey.
Ridgewood High School; Sophomore Rules Committee; Secretary Outing Club (2, 3); Outing Club Team (2); Assistant Manager Varsity Track (2, 3); Junior Week Committee; Junior Play Cast.

Two great men hail from N. J.—Woodrow Wilson and Gordon Miesse. The greatest thing about him is his voice and as an orator he would be a good train announcer in the Beldens station. Miesse is using his International Law and is getting practical experience on the Pearsons Hall Police force.

"A voice like a god."
SOLYMN DONALD MINER, KΔP
"Don"
Brandon, Vermont.
Brandon High School; College Orchestra (1, 2, 3); College Band (1, 2, 3); Leader (2); Alchemists; Waubanakee.
Miner is a fine example of a laughing philosopher. He is a disciple of Horace the Latin poet, and can recite his verses with great feeling. Tactics, also, is a favorite of his. Don's laugh is as forceful and unexpected as a geyser. It would make a horse smile. We like him too for the way he always believes in T(Ryan).

"O fons Bandusiae."

DANIEL HOWARD MOREAU, ΧΨ
"Sandy"
Freehold, New Jersey.
Freehold High School; Class Track (2); Class Football (1, 2); Interfraternity Council (3); Editor-in-Chief of Kaleidoscope (3); Waubanakee.
What two words can express more than "Our Editor." Sandy's office life consists of a few thoughts, lots of work and a great many blushes keeping time to the fairy touch of his dainty typewriter girl. Our hero hails from the town where a battle was fought and courtly "Grace" was invented. Nevertheless Sandy is a well meaning lad and always lifts a gloom with his presence.

"A solemn youth with sober phiz
Who eats his grub and minds his biz."

CLESSON WALLACE PARKER, ΔΚΕ
"Keck"
New Britain, Connecticut.
New Britain High School; Varsity Football (1, 2); Varsity Basketball (2, 3); Class Baseball (2); Chairman Social Committee of Union (3); Interfraternity Council (3); Junior Play; Delta Tau; Sages; Second Lieutenant Infantry U. S. A.
"Keck" is a heroic warrior for old Midd. On the athletic field he has battled long and well for the Blue and White. Keck's a hard fighter wherever he is, and when he gets started on an argument in the class-room, the Prof. is apt to have to take a balcony seat. His logic is irresistible. He could convince you that robins wear rubber boots to keep their feet warm, if you only face him with an open mind.

"His one bad habit—fear of the women."
EMERSON BALDWIN ROSS, XΨ
"Emmy"
Poultney, Vermont.

Troy Conference Academy; Class Football (2); Class Baseball (1, 2); Class Basketball (2, 3); Class Hockey (1, 2); Manager Class Hockey (2); Manager Class Track (2); Sophomore Hop Committee (2); Junior Prom Committee (3); Varsity Basketball Squad (2); Varsity Basketball (3); Outing Club Team (2); Sages; Alchemist.

Yes, Emmie is a good boy. He certainly stars in basketball, that is when the ball does not pass between his knees. Emmie’s other sport, outside of kidding the Ingersoll Company along, is drawing his fair companions to dances, on hand sleds. Outside of the fact that our hero comes from Poultney, we’ll pass him up as a good Midd specimen.

“He had a face like a benediction,
His ears laughed when his mouth went by.”

STEWART ROSS, XΨ
"Stew" “Pepper”
West Rutland, Vermont.

West Rutland High School; Varsity Football Squad (1); Varsity Football (2, 3), Captain (4); Varsity Baseball Squad (1); Varsity Basketball Squad (2); Class Baseball (1, 2); Class Basketball (2, 3); Chairman Sophomore Rules Committee (2); Student Council (3); Apollo Club (3); Sages; Waubanakee.

Step this way, ladies, and have correct change ready. Stewy’s abilities run from organ-grinder to football captain. What do I hear bid? We understand this young gentleman tends strictly to male matters, but those of us who know him, realize that he hits the social trail in his own home town. Hence the week-end trips. The words of “right dress” and “line up” have but recently died from his lips.

“His life was gentle and the elements
So mixt in line that nature might stand up,
And say to all the world—This is a man.”

GEORGE DURHAM ROTHERMEL, ΛΨ
“Rothy”
Camden, New Jersey.

Camden Manual Training and High School; Class Basketball (1, 2); Class Baseball (1); Second Team Basketball (2); Sages.

“Rothy” is our dark-completed mosquito from Camden. But that is nothing against him, as he really is a good fellow and full of fun. He left college for a time but the charm of the place drew the lost sheep back into the fold. When asked if he liked to go fussing he once replied, in his own patented drawl, “I surely do—ma.”

“Jolly and mirthful and full of fun.”
RALPH EGBERT SINCERBOX, AY

"Sincer"

Wassaic, New York.

Amenia High School; Class Baseball (1, 2); Class Football (2); Merrill Prize Speaker (2); Interfraternity Council (3); Secretary-Treasurer Alchemists (3); Member American Chemical Society.

This is to introduce “Sincer.” He is Lord Chancellor of the Exchequer of the Commons. He found one cent missing one day and spent three weeks tracing it. It was finally discovered in his own vest pocket where it had fallen during a transaction. Thus the account balanced and “Sincer” breathed a prayer of thankfulness. He’s the one and original woman-hater and the four walls of Pearsons are to him a far-off dream.

“Four years in College and I’ve never seen him yet.”

HENRY SEELEY THOMAS, XS

"Tommy" "Prexy"

Middlebury, Vermont.

Phillips Exeter Academy; Varsity Football Squad (1, 2); Varsity Football (3); Class Hockey (1, 2), Captain (1); Class Football (2), Captain (2); Parker Prize Speaker (1); Merrill Prize Speaker (2); Class Track (1, 2), Captain (2); Varsity Track (2); College Choir (2, 3); Glee Club (3); Junior Week Committee; Cheer Leader (3); Class Basketball (3); Kaleidoscope Board (3); Delta Tau.

Henry is our president “legacy.” When he isn’t asleep he certainly is a riptail roarer. He spends a great deal of his time deciding whether he can use his abilities better at football or in the college choir. He struck his medium and at present holds down the job as scoutmaster of the local troop.

“Now I lay me down to sleep
While father starts his sermon deep,
If I should snore before I wake,
I hope that father’s heart won’t break.”

GILBERT BREWER THOMSON

"Tommy"

Amherst, Massachusetts.

Amherst High School; Transfer from Clark University, 1917.

Here’s a proper man, well built and fashioned throughout, guaranteed to be all wool and a yard wide, and positively will not fade or ravel at the edges. “Tommy” has an imposing figure and would do well as a Mayor. He has the right proportions for one, anyway. He’s a general good fellow and we give him our blessing.

“In sooth I know not why I am so sad.”
GEORGE HAROLD WOODWARD, ΔΣΦ

"Woodie"

Camden, New Jersey.

Camden Manual Training and High School; Manager Class Football (2); Assistant Manager Varsity Football (3); Chairman Finance Committee of the Union (3); Class Basketball (3); Second Team Basketball Squad (3); Junior Play Committee; Waubanakee.

We are nearing the end of our journey, but we must not fail to gaze for a time upon the beaming face of this young Apollo. "Woodie's" hair is a wavy brown type, and drapes around his ears like snow flakes on the front porch. He will strain the point any time to give you a hearty greeting and his smile warms the cockles of your heart. He is our ideal of a sweet disposition plus an energetic nature; a hard combination to beat.

"I am leading too fast a life,
My head is getting Bobby."

MALCOLM GILMORE WRIGHT, ΔΥ

"Gillie"

Rutland, Vermont.

Rutland High School; Pianist for Glee Club (1); Cercle Français (1); Orchestra (2); War Service Committee (2); Glee Club (3); Choir (3); Assistant Instructor in French (3).

Ladies and gentlemen, for our final act we present for your approval Assistant Professor Wright, living advertisement for the "Century Book of Facts." As a pianist he has Paderewski backed off the map and gasping for air. Taking everything into consideration he is the second wonder of the world. During his college course he has been very fond of cooking and has been experimenting with cakes, especially with (F(r) ostin(g)e.

"I can never be wrong,
I shall always be Wright."

IDA BUENA ANDERSON, AX

"Bunnie"

Cornish, New Hampshire.

Windsor High School; T. S. E.; Pan-Hellenic Council (3); Class Secretary (3); Apollo Club (3); Home Economics Club (3); Civics Club (3); Class Volley Ball (3); Junior Prom Committee (3); Kaleidoscope Board (3); Junior Play (3).

Bunnie had just one year with us, when she decided to try Smith. "More fun, girls," but Middlebury is a pretty nice place, after all, she came back here just in time to be the leading lady in the Junior Play.

"There is no one that we'd sooner
Have plead woman's rights than Buena."
MARY EDITH BLISS
Cornwall, Vermont.
Middlebury High School; Apollo Club (3).
We have missed something because Mary has not lived on the Hill, for she is the kind of girl whose acquaintance is worth while. Mary's artistic ability is well-recognized by Midd students and her droll wit is the joy of her friends.
"Her modest looks the cottage might adorn,
Sweet as the primrose peeps beneath the thorn."

RUBY EVELYN BRUFFEE
Royalston, Massachusetts.
New Salem Academy; Musical Association (1); Deutscher Verein (2, 3); Vice-President (3); Home Economics Club (2); Basketball (1, 2, 3); Captain (3); Secretary Apollo Club (3).
Here it is! The reason why we haven't a step-ladder in Pearsons. When we want to hang curtains or pictures, we always borrow Ruby. She thinks as straight as she stands. Although she writes letters all the time, she is one of the class sharks.

RUTH ALICE CAMBRIDGE, AX
Somerville, Massachusetts.
Dean Academy, Franklin, Mass.; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet (1, 2); Civics Club (1, 2, 3); Cercle Français (1, 2, 3); Silver Bay Delegate (1); Silver Bay Club (1, 2, 3); Campus Reporter (2); Sophomore Hop Committee (2); College Choir (3); Junior Play (3).
"Come and trip it as you go, On the light fantastic toe!"
Ruth is Midd's star solo dancer, but her brains are not entirely in her feet. She can grapple with Dr. Lawrence's History courses and come through unscarred. What more could mortal ask?
Catherine Mary Carrigan, AX

"Cat"

Middlebury, Vermont.

"Cat" was originally a member of 1919, but when she looked the Juniors over, she decided we were pretty nice. So she stayed out a year and then joined our ranks. 1920 gladly welcomes any members like her. By the way, have you ever watched her smile (grin)?

Helen Lynch Clark, SK

Vergennes, Vermont.

Vergennes High School; Musical Association (1); Apollo Club (1); Home Economics Club (5); Secretary-Treasurer Home Economics Club (3).

Helen is not as bashful as she was freshman year, and just at present she is trying to live up to the reputation of her home city—Vergennes—by graduating in three years—pretty speedy! Sometimes we wonder if there isn't method in her madness. In a way we are hoping she stays four years, for Clark is certainly the best friend ever.

Mildred Violetta Cole, SK

"Letty"

Bloomingdale, New York.

Saratoga Springs High School and Willsboro High School; Civics Club (1, 2, 3); Membership Committee, Y. W. C. A. (2); Secretary and Treasurer of Civics Club (3); Musical Association (3).

During her Sophomore year Letty's special feature was conductor of Sunday night song services. This year she has proved herself an expert at making fudge, samples of which, together with numerous letters, have helped to win the war. They tell us that her aim in life is to be a HOME Missionary.
HARRIET LEAH CORKRAN, ΠΒΦ

"Leah"

Fort Edward, New York.

Middlebury High School; Basketball (1, 2), Captain (2); Silver Bay Delegate (2); Junior Prom Committee (3); Pan-Hellenic Council (3).

Leah had the misfortune of having to spend her pre-college years in the town of Middlebury; consequently she has to employ most of her time trying to convince people that she really is a student. She evidently believes in absent treatment for she has gained much of her college education through correspondence courses.

ALICE MARY CORTIS, ΔΔΔ

"Alice Mary"

Fourtellotte Memorial High School; Civics Club (1, 2); Apollo Club (3); Home Economics Club (3); Vice-President (3).

"Eat, drink, and be merry" is Alice's motto. She's a jolly little body with mischief in her eye, so beware! Since she entered Midd, she has become quite a pedestrian, her favorite destination being the Government Farm!

ESTELLE JULIA FOOTE

"Stelle"

Cornwall, Vermont.

Middlebury High School; Class Basketball (2); Civics Club (1, 2, 3); Associate Business Manager Campus (3); Home Economics Club (3).

And she tries to make us believe that she is grown up! Stelle will make a mighty fine nurse for she has an energetic nature and a loyal heart. Nevertheless her Puritan conscience causes her an endless amount of trouble.
GERTRUDE GRACE GRAVES, ΣΚ
Walpole, New Hampshire.

Walpole High School; Sophomore Hop Committee (2); Civics Club (2, 3); Musical Association (1, 2, 3); College Choir (3).

Gertrude's nickname is "Gertie," although she warned us not to put it down. Ever since freshman year she has thoroughly believed in co-educational institutions and to confirm her belief she has made an interesting collection of dance programs, etc. Her fancy, of late, has turned to poetry, and they say she has become quite a rhymer.

MARGARET BRENNAN HASSETT
"Mag"
Lee, Massachusetts.

Lee High School; Musical Association (1); Home Economics Club (3).

Whoever knows "Mag" will agree that she has a mighty good disposition. You just cannot make her sore and she's willing to do most anything for anybody. Her one failing seems to be her fondness for movies and fudge.

MARIE VERONICA HENRICHON, ΣΚ
Rutland, Vermont.

Rutland High School; Musical Association (1); Junior Prom Committee (3); Home Economics Club (3); Junior Play (3).

What would happen if Marie was slow in getting the latest style? Or what would happen if Marie should lose her "pep"? Or, how can so small a person have so big a mixture of sense and nonsense in her head? Or, why is the corner room in Bat Cot so popular? Just answer these and you will realize why we all like Marie.
ELSÄ EMELIA HOLMSTROM
“Eli”
Worcester, Massachusetts.
North High School; Secretary Student Government (3); Custodian Athletic Association (3); House Chairman Battell Cottage (3); Junior Play Committee (3); Captain Volley Ball Team (3); Apollo Club (3); Basketball Team (3).
Here’s to Elsa the House Chairman of Batt Cot. She is a good combination of athletic ability, common sense and “level headedness.” A mighty good student, the Profs will agree, and she lacks one thing—enemies.

MILDRED HARRIETT HUBBARD, ΣΚ
“Harrety”
Walpole, New Hampshire.
Walpole High School; Musical Association (1, 2, 3); Civics Club (2); Y. W. C. A. Cabinet (1, 2, 3), Secretary (2), Treasurer (3); Class Volley Ball (3); College Choir (1, 2, 3); Junior Week Committee (3); Kaleidoscope Board (3); Home Economics Club (3).
Here’s the girl whose domestic felicity is never complete without a “Kat.” Although her “why” and “what for” are heard on every occasion, she is a capable girl and a genuine exponent of Middlebury.

RUTH MARY JOSLIN, ΣΚ
Waitsfield, Vermont.
Northfield Seminary, E. Northfield, Mass.; Musical Association (1, 2, 3); Vice-President (3); Civics Club (1, 2, 3); Executive Committee (2); Y. W. C. A. Membership Committee (2, 3); Y. W. C. A. Cabinet (3); Silver Bay Delegate (2); Silver Bay Club (3); Pan-Hellenic Council (3); Student Government Council (3); College Choir (3); Apollo Club (3).
During Freshman year Ruth used frequently to remark, “When I was at Northfield,” but now she has changed the expression to “When I was in Burlington.” Last year she concentrated on “How to be a ‘Dean,’” and we hope that soon it will be “How to be a Phi Beta Kappa.”
FANNIE ESTHER LINCOLN
Concord, New Hampshire.

Concord High School; Student Government Council (2); House Chairman Battell Cottage (2); Athletic Council (3).

“A very proper person, she, and the very principle of politeness.” For did any one ever see Fanny do anything that was not all right? She is one of the best sports on the hill, and one may always count on her to enter into the fun. If you do not believe it, just watch her in Phys. Ed. 3 A.

ANNA PAULINE LOCKLIN
“Polly”
Richford, Vermont.

Richford High School; Musical Association (2); Civics Club (2, 3); First Horace Prize (2); Vice President Apollo Club (3); War Service Committee (3); Campus Board (3).

“Where’s ‘Stelle?” This is Vergil the Second—Latin Hymns a specialty. We breathe in poetry from the very air about her. If you want something done, ask Polly. She always has “just a few minutes” in which to help the other fellow. Polly, Pep and Popularity—get the connection?

EMILY MILLARD, ΔΔΔ
“Emmie” “Lil”
Tarrytown, New York.

Washington Irving High School; T. S. E.; Musical Association (1); Home Economics Club (2, 3); Vice-President Class (3).

The lady of few words who makes an ideal running mate for her noisy sister! However, underneath her seeming calm lies a wealth of fun and obstinacy.
Florence Millard,  ΔΔΔ
“Florrie”
Tarrytown, New York.
Washington Irving High School; T. S. E.; Class Secretary (1); Musical Association (1); Home Economics (2); College Choir (2); Student Government Council (2); Sons of Rest (1, 2, 3); Junior Week Committee (3); Volley Ball (3); Varsity (3); Pan-Hellenic Council (3); Junior Play (3).
“I don’t bother work and work don’t bother me! Everybody knows who this New York-er is, and her droll wit furnishes plenty of excitement on third floor. She’s all right, our Florrie!”

Gertrude Victoria Moore,  ΠΠΦ
“Victory”
Alstead, New Hampshire.
Bellows Falls High School; Basketball (1, 2, 3); Deutscher Verein (2); Campus Board (3); Junior Week Committee (3).
“I can’t be bothered to do that!” That’s Gertrude all over, but nevertheless she is always willing to go to the movies. She talks little but we trust that her many hidden thoughts will bring her fame some day.

Marion Margaret Mullings,  ΞΚ
Bristol, Vermont.
Bristol High School; Sophomore Rules Committee (2); Apollo Club (3); Junior Play (3).
Marion came to college with her hair down her back, but—time flies—she is quite a young lady now and has even been known to go out with men. She is just as irresistible and jolly as she is good looking, so judge for yourself.
MARY MAGDALENE O'NEIL

"Mae"
South Hingham, Massachusetts.

Hingham High School; Musical Association (1); Home Economics Club (3); Apollo Club (3).

"Mae" seems to have a fondness for taking the same courses that her room-mate does. A proof that they can not bear a separation. Here's another Batt Cottite who likes being one.

ELETTA ELLA PEASE, AX
Middlebury, Vermont.

Burlington High School.

"A merry lassie, bubbling over with glee," although she manages to keep sedate at the library desk. She's a busy lady, too, and has not learned yet how to waste time (?).

MADINE JOHNSON ROGERS, ΔΔΔ

"Medina"
Barre, Vermont.

Spaulding High School; T. S. E.; Civics Club (1, 2, 3), Executive Committee (1); Y. W. C. A. Cabinet (2, 3); Class Secretary (2); Athletic Council (3); War Service Committee (3); Volley Ball (3); Junior Play (3); Assistant Business Manager of Kaleidoscope (3).

Owing to her many social duties, Madine’s college education has been somewhat neglected, but she is a mighty capable girl all the same. Her freshman year she elected a difficult course in "Affection and How to Exhibit it." This year she is doing research work on the "Revival of Spinning and the Use of the Jenne." She seems to be managing it well, too. "Stick-to-tiveness," that’s Madine all over.
MARY LOUISE SMITH, AX
Middlebury, Vermont.
Middlebury High School; Third Horace Prize (2)
Our little shorn lamb. Influenza—Off flew poor Mary's hair. But this is a sore point with Mary, so let's drop it. She is a right good student, is some little artist, and just the best friend ever.

FAUSTINE CHARLOTTE THOMAS
North Adams, Massachusetts.
Drury High School; Musical Association (1); Volley Ball Team (5); Junior Prom Committee (3); Home Economics Club (3); Basketball (3).
Faustine, the little girl with the Dutch cut and the canary voice which anyone who has ever been in a class with her will recognize. Of course we know she is the smallest member of the class, but in her own estimation she is one of the biggest.

ADDIE LORETTE THOMPSON
Weybridge, Vermont.
Montpelier High School; Musical Association (1, 2); Apollo Club (3).
Plenty of common sense and a comfortable disposition to live with—that's Tommy! There is only one thing we can "kid" Tom about, and we promised not to, but just watch her when the mail comes! She is a very moderate individual, but she does go to church an appalling number of times every Sunday.
Ethel Wells, ΔΔΔ
Berlin, New York.

Berlin High School; Home Economics Club (2); Civics Club (2); Musical Association (1, 2); Junior Prom Committee (3).

Sister Susie’s knitting for the soldiers, socks and scarfs being her specialty. To look at her one wouldn’t think she could be decided in her ways, but she might even be called stubborn at times. For all of that we are glad Fate sent her to Midd and gave her to us for a friend.

The following men are enrolled in the classes of 1919 and 1920, having returned from the service to complete their courses:

Charles Lynn Montgomery, '17
Frank Seraf Gredler, '18
Channing Hildreth Greene, '18
Dexter Horace Mead, '18

The Junior Prom
Class of 1919

On account of the war, the customary Junior Week was given up, but the class of 1919 did vote to have their one big dance, the "Prom." This was held on Monday evening of Commencement Week, May 6, 1918. Despite the war, many alumni and guests were present. The Prom was a great success and was the crowning event of the year.

Junior Prom

Class of 1920

Friday, May 2, 1919

The Junior Prom of 1919 was one of the most successful Proms ever given. Now that Middlebury is back on the pre-war basis, all were anxious to make Junior Week a great success, and the Prom was perhaps the most important feature of this week of festivity. The gymnasium was attractively decorated in the class colors and a large number enjoyed the good music and the good time.

The Junior Play was presented on Saturday evening of Junior Week, in the McCullough Gymnasium. The Committee chose "The Scrap of Paper," which is a clever comedy with plenty of action and many different characters. Professor Burrage and Mrs. Lawrence gave much of their time to drilling the cast and deserve much appreciation.

The George H. Catlin Classical Prize
This prize established in 1918 by Mr. George H. Catlin of Scranton, Pa., awards the income of $1000 to the man of the Senior Class who in the estimation of the heads of the departments of the ancient languages has shown the greatest proficiency in the Greek and Latin languages.
Awarded to Henry H. Chapman, 1918
The Class Day Exercises were held at 10:00 A. M. on the College Campus. The exercises opened with the entrance march of the Seniors, from the Library to the temporary stage. The Seniors, led by the Junior Class Marshals, passed between ropes of evergreen, held by girls of the College. The alumni and guests were welcomed by Forrest Myrick, president of the class of 1918. The gift, presented to the College by the graduating class, was a Service Flag having 205 stars and one gold star.

After the usual Class Day Program, President Thomas announced the prizes to be given in the different academic departments.

To write the story of achievement of our college in the war when its clouds have scarcely passed is quite impossible. Time alone can derive the narrative of those men of Middlebury who fought for ideals fashioned within her halls and only time can permit the collection of data which is yet unavailable. May the future produce one who shall profit by the intervening period and gather the story as a tribute to his Alma Mater—an added volume to her set of teachings and ideals.

The challenge of a conflict whose issues were so clearly defined was accepted by the sons and daughters of Middlebury with a vigor which showed true devotion to service. With the conflict there grew hand in hand a keener perception of what was expected of those who were trained for leadership and the more active lines of duty, and what those could do who must necessarily choose the simpler means of service. Some saw the the need of their efforts very early in the conflict and it was they who by their splendid example inspired others. Some accepted wise counsel and awaited for time to make them capable of doing their utmost. Some assumed their daily task with greater seriousness, and with it, little ways of helping which were of inestimable value. Some gave their all—may we, who carry on, accept the lesson of it all and be worthy of them.

To those who accepted those little methods of service here on the campus Middlebury owes a great debt of gratitude. To them we owe our present knowledge of the deeds of devotion, and the unity of spirit and purpose of those who were far away in the camps, the trenches, and on the sea. The organization most prominent in this work was the War Service Committee. The task of this committee is nearly completed and a short summary of its accomplishment is possible, and, it seems, appropriate.

The War Service Committee had its inception among some students and members of the faculty who were interested in doing what they could to help those of their number who had answered the call to the colors. Chief among its founders were Professor Myron R. Sanford and Richard H. Buffum, 1918. The first plan was to write occasional letters to the men but early efforts met with such praise that the scope of the work grew rapidly.

The work of the committee grew with the number of men with the colors and necessitated besides its own personnel a large corps of student helpers to carry on the correspondence, the management of finances, and the knitting of Red Cross articles. All together some two hundred people participated and over twelve thousand letters were written. An efficient system of sending these letters at regular intervals was worked out. To each Middlebury man overseas or in transport service two personal letters were sent each week; men not holding commissions on this side received one each week; those in Y. M. C. A., Red Cross and allied work one each two weeks and commissioned officers on this side one a month. The Campus was sent from the beginning until April, 1919, to all, and to those overseas it was enclosed in the letters and sent first class so as to insure against loss. This close line of communication between the college and the men made it possible to keep a very accurate roll of honor, and the complete roster was published periodically with the latest addresses and was forwarded to them each time. Many a letter has reported an old friendship renewed as well as spirit and devotion to duty and to the old college strengthened by means of these small services rendered.

Besides the various forms of literature sent to the men the War Service Committee was able to furnish them with many useful articles and luxuries that soldiers and sailors prize. Christmas 1917 saw more than one hundred specially constructed boxes containing candy, tobacco, and writing materials forwarded. Knitted goods, and other things designed to give comfort to the men were also sent at different times.

The funds to carry on the work have been contributed almost entirely by students and members of the faculty, although a few generously inclined alumni and friends have rendered assistance. Five drives for small sums each time have enabled the committee to pay its debts promptly and all expenses have been met in this way.

The appreciation of the men in the camps, trenches and on the battleships and transports has been very marked. The college feels that the large amount of time and pains to keep the college in touch with its loyal sons has not been lost. The work is unique in that so far as can be learned no American college went either to the expense or trouble to reach its men so continually as in the plan adopted and so faithfully and effectively carried out by the students of Middlebury. It is altogether probable that at the coming commencement the work of the committee will culminate in the procuring of some sort of memorial to signify to posterity how gratefully the college has recognized the splendid service of its men, and how tenderly they remember those whose presence will never more brighten the scenes of our college.

There were approximately three hundred and eighty Middlebury men in the service, of which number more than one-third served overseas or on battleships, transports and submarines, and yet the college was signally fortunate in the small number of fatalities, as but ten, so far as the records are now available, lost their lives. As was stated by way of introduction a complete history of the part of our Alma Mater in the whole conflict will be fitting in the future, when the tales of heroism and of duty well done can be combined with the statistics of citation and position of Middlebury men and the whole added as the most glorious chapter in the history of our college.
Military Training at Middlebury

During the past two years military training has played an important part in the life of the college. There have been several military organizations here within that period and all had a share in preparing the men who left here for various branches of the service.

Late in the fall of 1916 the campaign of preparedness swept over the land and people began to realize that war was necessary. At this time many colleges were establishing military units and the men of Middlebury were not slow to consider the advisability of taking similar steps. Several upper-classmen who had attended the Plattsburg Camp the previous summer were well equipped to give close order drill during the winter and most of the work was carried on in the Gymnasium. With the coming of spring and actual war, the college authorities decided to establish a more permanent organization called the Middlebury College Cadet Corps. Two Norwich University officers were employed and practically every man in college joined the organization. This movement was not entirely successful, however, largely because of two reasons,—it was entirely voluntary in character, and the rapid depletion of the student body due to enlistment in various branches of service including agricultural work seriously interfered.

With the resumption of college in the fall with greatly depleted numbers no provisions had been made for military work. This condition was largely due to the fact that the college was not able to depend upon sufficient numbers returning to make application for an R. O. T. C. unit. With those who did return the desire for a good military unit was strong and with the establishment by the state of the Vermont Volunteer Militia to take the place of the National Guard, which had gone into the national service, the Adjutant General submitted a plan for starting a unit of that organization in the college. The students responded to this offer and about a hundred agreed to support a battalion of the V. V. M. Professor McFarland who held a commission in this organization was promoted to Major and put in charge of the battalion. At a small charge to the students, the state furnished all equipment for this unit. Those who took advantage of the training were given credit for a college course and the arrangement proved very satisfactory. By the end of the year the battalion was able to make a very creditable showing and one of the features of that war time commencement was an exhibition drill and inspection.

Middlebury was one of the first colleges to co-operate with the government in its organization of the Student Army Training Corps in the fall of 1918. This period of military training will constitute one of the landmarks in college history. The object of this organization, to keep up the supply of officer material which was fast being depleted at the front, was a worthy one. To make the college over into a military post was almost as large a task as to make military men at the college. Many changes were made in the college plant and in the curriculum to meet the S. A. T. C. requirements. Hepburn and Starr Halls were used as company barracks, Hamlin Commons was remodeled and used as an extra mess hall, the Trophy Room at Hepburn was used as Y. M. C. A. headquarters, the Gymnasium constituted a guard house, and South Painter Hall contained the company headquarters and the supply department.

The courses for the cadets in the S. A. T. C. were arranged in five groups, each being preparatory to a definite branch of the service. The men were formally inducted into the service on the first of October and appropriate exercises were held including the raising of a fine flag presented by Ex-Governor Mead.

The success of the S. A. T. C. was seriously impaired by the influenza epidemic during the early days and in fact the organization never recovered from this blow. Although more serious results were avoided by the efficiency of medical officers and by strict discipline during the siege it resulted in two deaths. After the month’s quarantine was lifted the military and study program began to run smoothly. There were, needless to say, many unavoidable delays among which was the tardy arrival of equipment, some of which was not issued until a few days before discharge. The success which accompanied the movement in spite of the many difficulties was due not a little to the officers that were in charge. All were college men and they accepted their unusual task in a manner befitting college men. First Lieutenants Miles H. Jones was in command and Second Lieutenants Raymond McFarland, Guy S. Slusser, Valentine C. Ritter, and Rex L. Van Alstyne served in the respective capacities of Personnel Adjutant, Supply Officer, Commander of Co. A, and Commander of Co. B.

The S. A. T. C. had its ups and downs here as elsewhere and although its history is not filled with glory no one could discount the fact that the spirit was there, had the war been prolonged, to make of it a complete success. But five men left Middlebury for officer training camps, but all were anxious to do their part. When the news of peace came, it was not received with characteristic enthusiasm by a large majority of the men; and in fact it was received with not a little disappointment by many who had been looking forward to the day when they would be called upon to do their part. Anyone who saw the Victory Day Parade could not fail to appreciate this fact.

With the approach of the time for discharge there was little relaxation in the effort to maintain the usual standard; but the spirit was broken and all welcomed those early days of December when the two companies were discharged. To those whose only military experience was in the S. A. T. C. the memory of those days will long linger. It was difficult to adjust the old traditions of college to the military regime, but those who did it will never fail to appreciate the effort required.

At present plans are under way to organize a branch of the Reserve Officers Training Corps here. The beneficial results of modern methods of military training, combined with the somewhat chaotic condition of the world, present a strong argument against too great relaxation along these lines. Although various plans of military training have not been entirely successful in colleges, Middlebury cannot fail to realize the service of these organizations, in considering the establishment of another.

1917

Middlebury's athletics suffered from the war as they did at all other colleges, but she managed, even under this handicap, to do herself credit in the different branches of sport.

The football team of 1917, though the team was somewhat crippled by the enlistment of some of its star players, made a very creditable showing under the efficient leadership of Captain Bower. Midd opened the season by winning over Amherst in a close, well-played game. The team suffered some defeats, but every game that was lost, was a game well earned by the victors.

Athletics at Middlebury, during the fall term, suffered from the intensive military training that was carried on in the S. A. T. C. unit. The epidemic of influenza was also a great blow. Canty, the big captain of this year’s team, was succeeded by “Stew” Ross.

Baseball is the sport in Middlebury that was hit the hardest of all by the war. Last year college closed the first of May making a baseball season impossible. This year however Manager Douglas has arranged a good schedule and the baseball season is bound to be a successful one.

Manager, Holbrook; Assistant Manager, Miesse; Captain, Brewster; Captain-Elect, Jones.

Captain Brewster and Fred Jones went to the New England Intercollegiates and Jones won third place in the mile run.

Manager Holbrook has planned a good schedule this year and for the first time in the history of the college an Interscholastic Track Meet is being held here. All of the leading prep schools of New England and New York are expected to send teams.

The basketball team of 1918 was the fastest in Vermont, winning the state championship and having six victories and no defeats to its credit. The passing, floor-work and shooting of the forwards Miske and Heath was quick and dependable. By his speed and accuracy Captain Parker filled the center position in a manner which gave his team confidence and pep for which he deserves a great deal of credit. The small scores of Midd's opponents were due largely to the fine guarding of Myrick and Christian. At the end of the season the men were presented with gold basketballs as a token of the appreciation of the student body of the fine record they had made. Heath was elected captain for 1919.

The 1919 basketball team was severely crippled by the loss of four of the best men of the 1918 squad. Miske, the only letter man to return, was elected captain, and Jones, '19, manager. Tatro and Jenne proved to be strong men on the team and Miske played a very good game. The class of 1922 proved a source of other good material for the future.

The season was short and Middlebury for the first time in her history met teams from outside of the state.

Class History

We are the Sophomores and tho an extremely modest class we hope we have not so far degenerated as to be unable to appreciate our own true worth. We therefore make our best bow and give a mighty cheer for '21. If we were not modest we would expatiate (let no Frosh dare to use this word) on our true greatness and the glory we have received; but we hope our friends will excuse us if we simply mention a few of our exploits and distinguishing traits.

During our Freshman year all* that we did was to win from the Sophs the Inter-Class Track Meet and the Hat Scrap. The ease with which our team won the Inter-Class Baseball Tournament was a crime.
The usual activities during the present year were interrupted by the S. A. T. C., but with the resumption of regular college in January we again proved our worth by winning the Inter-Class Basketball Contest. The old college days having returned, the need of exercise of that well known function of the Sophomore Class, to keep the Freshmen well in hand, was quite evident. We have done but little hazing yet, because of certain objections of the Faculty and "others" who seem to want to protect the poor dear Frosh. However we want it understood that we can, and will haze if necessary.

As to the feminine side their record is, needless to say, a glorious one. Last year they won the Girls Inter-Class Basketball Contest easily. They are without doubt the best bunch of girls† that ever entered Middlebury.

Now in closing we will say just one more very important thing: "We are the pride of the Faculty and the object of envy of all the other classes of Midd.

The Outing Club

The Middlebury Outing Club was organized in the fall of 1916 for the purpose of developing winter sports among the men of the college. Its rapid growth has demonstrated a lively interest in the Club and its activities. The college is most favorably located for extensive outdoor sports, and the Green Mountains furnish charming objectives for long hikes in the fall and spring, and snowshoe and ski parties in the winter. It is the latter that the Club encourages the most on account of the ideal conditions for these sports.

Middlebury has been represented at the Dartmouth winter meets for the past two seasons and has won places on both occasions. The team sent to Dartmouth is picked from the men showing the greatest ability at an inter-class meet held about the beginning of the second semester. Membership in the club is open to all men of the college. The membership fee is fifty cents a semester. Regular meetings are held monthly during the winter. The officers are elected at the first meeting in the fall.

Silver Bay Club

The Silver Bay Club consists of those students sent as delegates from Middlebury to the Y. W. C. A. Student Conference at Silver Bay, New York, where several hundred girls from New England Colleges meet for religious conference. For ten days, the delegates meet; the mornings being given over to Bible and mission classes and to lectures given by Y. W. C. A. leaders, and the afternoons to athletic contests and other forms of recreation. The main purpose of the conference is to give inspiration and enthusiasm to the girls, who are to carry on the work in their college organizations the following year.

The Alchemist Club

This society was founded by men who were taking the higher courses in chemistry. Any man is eligible for membership who has taken Chemistry 3 and 4, and any higher course. The society holds regular meetings at which a paper is read or a talk given by some member on a subject relating to chemistry. Each year a president, vice-president, secretary-treasurer, and faculty member are elected.

H. Nielsen

R. E. McSweeney
During the years of 1917-1918 and 1918-1919 the club suspended its activities on account of the lack of time and the pressure of work. Many of the men left for military and naval service and the women were crowded for time. Because of the resulting confusion, it was deemed wise to stop the work of the society until conditions should become more settled.

The College Handbook

1918-1919

Richard H. Buffum '18 . . . . . . Editor
Ruth A. Hesselgrave '18 . . . . . . Assistant Editor

The Middlebury Handbook is published annually by the Middlebury Union, and the Student Government Association of the women's college, under the direction of a joint Committee composed of the Student Council and representatives of the Student Government Association. During the summer it is sent free of charge to those who intend to enter college in the fall. Returning students purchase the book of the committee.

The College Choir

The College Choir is made up of about thirty students, who are paid. It is under the direction of the Professor of Music.

The Choral Society

This society was formed early in the spring of 1919 for the purpose of developing a student chorus to take a prominent part in commencement and other college occasions. An experienced director is employed and it is hoped that the organization will fill an important place in the musical activity of the whole college.

The college band was organized in 1909 through the efforts of former Dean Walter E. Howard and Edgar J. Wiley, '13. The college has engaged a competent leader under whose direction the band meets every week for practice. Opportunity is given for any man with musical talent to become a member of the band through previous qualifications or through training furnished free by the college. The band has become an important part of the college life, leading the procession at varsity contests and occasionally taking part at entertainments and patriotic gatherings in the town.

Class History

Where oh where are the verdant freshmen? Here, there and in fact at any point where the college activities are at their height. On the football field, on the basketball court and on the campus the class of 1922 has made the green cap a badge of honor.

By placing nine first-string men on the football team as well as several others on the basketball five the class has accomplished an unusual feat which has perhaps won for her a more enviable record than that of any other entering class. Though but moderately successful, thus far, in the class contests, football unfortunately being impossible, the freshmen are confidently awaiting the baseball season and the annual Hat Scrap.

Our faithful adherence to the rules and customs of Middlebury has clearly indicated the existence of the true college spirit in the hearts of the members of the class of 1922. It is this spirit which, having carried us thus far, gives promise of greater rewards in the future. And now the class of 1922 is eager and ready to promote and advance the glory and honor of that which is ever dearest to the hearts of true Middlebury men and women, our beloved College-on-the-Hill.

Dear Father:

I always plan to take some form of heavy exercise after a heavy meal so I take my pen in hand (crude expression but reliable—like flour) to write that 'steen page letter I promised you ages ago. Would'st like to hear about all of our exciting adventures on the glee club trip?

The gang, twenty-nine of us, assembled at the station to take the 4:40 which left according to time-old custom at 5:30. After many stops the train laboriously crawled into Proctor.

The "agony" quartet, "Rolly," "Manz," "Al" and "Bill," which for hours (according to the word of some people who had never taken Musical Appreciation) had been producing harmony in the smoker, got out amid applause, "God Speeds" and tearful remarks expressing sympathy for the people of Proctor. At the station we were allotted different places at which to stay over night.

Sam and I went to a Mrs. Smith's house (also Mr. Smith's) where we ate a sumptuous meal without committing any social errors. Not being used to style it was a miracle that we made the knives and forks (6 each) come out right at the end of the meal.

It being late when we finished supper we double-timed into our dress suits and ran... for the theatre. Great consternation greeted us. "Watty" had forgotten his suspenders and Paris unmentionables.

The concert got away for a million so we thought it safe to run the dance. I guess all the girls down this way play tag or horse instead of learn to dance. I pulled a couple around the floor a while but finally gave it up. "Furb," however, picked out a peach. He had one dance, then another, and asked for a third, thinking what a "heppy, heppy ket" was he; or rather, was going to be. His flow of thought was interrupted by the above mentioned damsel who told "Furb" that she was going home-----with friend husband. Oh Gloom. After the dance everyone proceeded to get lost in the wilds of the town. "Bill" Cole said, on his return to the city, that if he had known the young lady lived in Center Rutland, he wouldn't have bothered to come back to Proctor to take the train. "Bill" was not alone in his misery; others became acquainted with the outlying districts of Proctor.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith had just been married, Mrs. said Ralph was a model hubby. I guess she was right; Ralphie, at five o'clock in the morning, shook up the fire in the furnace, built a fire in the cook stove and, by the racket, moved the piano up and down stairs without a word of complaint. At breakfast Sam and I made two "faux pas," eating our grape fruit with ordinary teaspoons, and forgetting to wash in the finger-bowls. It wasn't necessary anyway, having performed our ablutions up stairs. "Watty's" hostess caught "Watty" sans putes with the parlor doorknob in his hand. He declared all day long that he didn't get away with any of the silver. Most of the bunch went through the marble mill, and the foresighted members, thinking of final exams, picked out their headstones.

We all got on the train without anyone getting pinched or injured by over-ripe fruit and hit for Ludlow. WHAT A BURG! It went dry by two votes, hence the downcast expression on some of the fellows' faces. Most of us stayed at a cootie-infested, heatless hotel. Mead and Houghton got away with two salt shakes as souvenirs. The rest didn't need anything to remember the place by. "Jazz" Lavan and "Gob" Yates stole a bed at the Ludlow Inn, thereby causing its rightful owner, a drummer, to sleep in the hall up against the wall, where we found him next morning. A good crowd turned out for the concert and dance. The girls here thought "shimmey" was a new kind of salad.

With the exception of "Jazz" and "Bill," who tore back to Ludlow (God knows why, unless for the joy of leaving it again), and "Monty," who sponged a dinner in Chester, we all rested in Bellows Falls. Bill-boards all over the town featured Thomas in "The Sleeping Beauty." "Watty" and I almost accepted a bid to a party, extended by two French girls, the Misses Ryan and Murphy. We declined, however, and went to church—to a bean supper. "Dex" ate too much and worked it off by smashing baggage at Charlestown. Here we left the fast cars (sarcasm) and jolted up to Springfield in an electric car. Mead and the rabbit rode with the rest of the freight. "Watty" was solemn all the way up and said, as a sort of explanation, that he would have to do a tall lot of explaining over the loss of one of his Lieutenant bars. Coolidge said he might find one in Springfield. A discussion ensued over what he meant. Some of us went to a dance and discovered two good dancers. Judd, Cole and I, upon returning with the milkman, said that never again would we walk home with any more girls from dances unless they lived nearer than the next county. "Bill" Huggard was afraid to go to bed in his "room-and-bath" joint because he thought someone would want to use the tub.

"Manz" and "Rolly" came back to the fold after a wild tear in Windsor, where they learned to shimmey or something, we guess it was something. The concert went off good except "Dex" forgot the point of his only good joke, getting a laugh from no one in the audience except the bunch who filled up three of the vacant eight rows during "Dex's" act. The dance was a success, too; the two good dancers who were at the dance the night before, and two other semi-good dancers were discovered. "Migit" Jones gladened our eyes by appearing at the dance. Potratz and Cole make a couple of "faux pas" by being unable to distinguish a Sigma Kappa pin from a Tri-Delt or an Alpha Chi pin. Three fellows had to stay behind the scenes until everyone had gone because each had promised three girls that they would go home with them.

The next day saw us on our way home, à la automobile as far as Gassetts. Gassetts is some hamlet with its two stores and one citizen, he, by the way, having been there ever since Vermont was admitted to the Union. After passing an hour and incidentally, all our pennies to the storekeeper, the Rutland limited (limited to 12 miles per hour) came along and we all piled on.

Except for an occasional outburst from the "agony" quartet, all was quiet until we climbed out at Midd. The trip is now a thing of the past, and even with exams staring us in the face, not one of barnstormers will forget that week's dissipation.

I 'most forgot; I spent my allowance for the next two weeks on the trip. Please send check for $100 so I won't have to count the ties all the way home.

Lovingly,

ITCHABOB.
Ballad of Mary and the Germ

Mary had a little bug,
'Twas Spanish by descent,
And everywhere she ambled to
That little buggy went.

It followed her to Midd one day
Without the good Dean's knowledge;
And all the Middites groaned to see
That Spanish bug in college.

"Doc" Eddy tried to drive him out
With nurses, pills and all;
But still the buggie frisked about
In Pearsons Social Hall.

"Why does the bug love co-eds so?"
The maidens all did sigh;
But fifty doctors in a row
Could never tell them why.

CANTY: "Will you draw up an 'ad' for our new lot of Meerschaums?"
KASPER: "Sure; that will be a pipe."

INSTRUCTOR: "Tell what you know about this play."
FUSSED FROSH: "Why, er—er—er—"
SYMPATHETIC CLASSMATE: "Go ahead; to err is human."

"DAVE": "According to your definition Jenne might be described as a 'stream of consciousness.'"
"MAC": "Yes, to be sure."
"DAVE": "And also a 'stream of unconsciousness'?"
"MAC": "No, only when I ask him a question."

ROOKIE S. A. T. C. GUARD: "Who goes there! !"
COMMANDING OFFICER, approaching post (in correction): "Who's there."
REPLY: "The guard."

DIXON: "What part did he have in the Junior Play?"
WADE: "He was a cook behind the scenes."

PROF. STROUT (having vainly endeavored to interpret an utterance of a co-ed): "Some day, my dear young lady, when you say 'yes' a certain young man is going to understand you to say 'no,' and then there'll be a tragedy."

At Taylor's "cafe."
MEADE: "Hey, Cohen, your thumb's in my soup."
"WILLIE": "That's all right; it isn't hot."

"AL": "I'd make a poor Scotchman, running around, these Vermont winters, in kilts." (Afterthought) "Still, I wish I did have a little Scotch in me."
DIXON TO E. ROSS: "Yes, Emmy, I know how it feels to be turned down."
ROSS: "I guess you do."

"Doc" HARRINGTON: "Why was it that all the Assyrian women wore veils over their faces until after marriage?"
SAM: "To give the homely ones a chance."

FROSH: What's the matter with Furber's eye? Run into a door?"
SOPH: "No, a thought struck him."

MOTHER: "George, would you like to have me get you a girl for the next dance?"
GEORGE: "Yes, Du-ma(s)."

STEVE: "Now, Miss Rogers, where did you ever come in contact with foreigners?"
MADINE: "Every summer in the lumber camps in the White Mountains there are a lot of Poles." (Quite true.)

Heard at Chi Psi Lodge
"DAVE": "Let's have a Chi Psi beauty contest."
"EMMY": "Withdraw my name; I don't want to be any honor grabber."

MAC (discussing modern dress and that of a few years ago): "They used to wear bustles a few years ago, didn't they?" (Silence throughout the class.) "Quite handy in slippery weather, I'll say."

"SAM": "Hey, Willie, are you going to play basketball tonight?"
"WILLIE": "No, my new shoes haven't come yet. You see I had them made to order and the freights are slow these days."
Grinds

"With Malice Towards None, With Charity For All."

ELIZABETH KERR: She talks much and means little.
CAROLYN COLES: I'm o'er young—'twad be a sin
To take me from my mammy yet.
CHARLES KINNE: No lady in her bower could blush more rosy red.
DEWEY ELLSWORTH: Content of nature's boundless store to hug (who's that?),
Dissect a cat or classify a bug.
IRENE GAYLOR: There is nothing like being used to a thing.
HAMILTON BROWN: Though he be blunt, I know him passing wise; though he be merry, yet withal he's honest.
PALOUBET REIMER: He feels as well and as contented as if he had good sense.
WAYNE SPENCER: A man with an unclean lip.
BRENNAN HORNER: For many a man returns from school,
A Latin, Greek and Hebrew fool.
JOHN WRIGHT: It's fun to see him strut about and try to be a man.
FARRINGTON STOCKWELL: As innocent as a devil two years old.
THOMAS WHITMORE: The glorious president of Grosser fools.
SERAF GREDLER: A lion among the ladies is a most dreadful thing. 'Tenshun!
WATSON WILLIAMS: A mormon in sentiment.
COLLEGE CHOIR: 'Tis not in tune.
THE MIDDLEBURY CAMPUS: Uncrabbable?
THE STUDENT COUNCIL: The jury passing on the prisoner's life may in the sworn twelve have a thief or two guiltier than him they try.
THE GLEE CLUB: True it is we have seen better days.
KALEIDOSCOPE: No man ever wrote such damned stuff as this.
OMERON COOLIDGE: There was a young man in the choir
Whose voice rose higher and higher
Till it reached such a height
It got clean out of sight
And they found it next day on the spire.
JOHNSON ROGERS: She never worked but moments odd,
Yet many a bluff wrought she.
LANGDON JONES: Ma, gimme a cent, I want to be tough.
SEELY THOMAS: Not dead; just sleeping.
GREENLEAF JOHNSON: Be it ill, be it well; be I bond, be I free,
                I am as I am; and so I will be.
DREW TOMLINSON: Oh there is nothing so sweet in life as love’s young dream.
LOVELL DOUTHIT: Inoffensive as a glass of water.
McKINLEY ADKINS: He will give the devil his due.
ELMER JENNE: I am not in the roll of common men.
LeBARON MANZER: Sighed and looked, and looked again.
RHUA BURDITT: Haste makes waste.
ELIZABETH SWAN: She toils not, neither does she spin.
CHARLES HOWE: Sixteen and in love! What more has earth to offer?
GERTRUDE HOLLAND: Why not conscience have vacation,
                As well as the other courts of the nation?
ANNA LOCKLIN: Wherefor walked thou in a dream?
ANY ON THE CAMPUS: Tall men like tall houses are usually ill-furnished in the upper story.
PHILIP KASPER: There may be greater men than I, but I don’t believe it.
JOSEPH KEPPLER: Of all bad things by which mankind are cursed,
                Their own bad tempers surely are the worst.
RODERICK DIXON: Jaunty as the nimble flit of a cabaret dancer in midnight season form.
SOPHIA STILPHEN: Her voice was ever soft, gentle and low (?),
                An excellent thing in woman.
BO Hermann Swift: Of as little influence as the letter “p” in pneumonia.
JOSEPH BREEN: Ill weeds grow fast.
BALDWIN ROSS: “I do not see how any mistakes could have been made so that the watches changed faces.” U. S. 105, 1918, Ross vs. Ingersoll.
AUGUSTA HAYNES: Life is real, life is earnest.
EDWARD HOMANS: If none of us made mistakes there would be no pencils with rubber ends.
BENNETT KERR: It becomes a young man to be modest.
PETTINGILL DAVIS: Some men are like a brook, noisy but shallow.
SYDNEY BUTLER: Waltz, waltz along, both legs and arms demand,
                Liberal of feet and lavish of his hands.
FRANCIS COATES: The world concerns me not at all.
MAY DERRY: That's where Vermont comes in.
A. COHEN: There would have been more of him if there hadn't been so much turned up for feet.
FRANCIS HAGERTY: A hardened, stubborn, unrepenting villain.
GILMORE WRIGHT: I want to be a scholar and with the scholars stand.
ARTHUR MIESSE: You look wise. Please correct that error.
BRACKETT LAW: Much study is the weariness of the flesh.
RAYMOND COOLEY: Some men are like musical glasses. In order to produce their finest music you must keep them wet.
BATCHELDER SHEPARDSON: He was a wise man of unbounded stomach.
WALLACE PARKER: All that glitters is not gold.
RAYMOND CANTY: In the way of bargains, mark ye me, I'll cavil on the ninth part of a hair.
ELI PITKIN: I'll not budge an inch.
ELIZABETH COBURN: Even innocence hath many a wile.
DURHAM ROTHERMEL: A fly sat on a chariot wheel
And said, "Whew, what a dust I raise!"
ROLLIN BIGLOW: An old lady with a jaw like a flat-iron.
ALICE CAMBRIDGE: Her equal lives not, thank heaven for that.
DWIGHT CARLE: Now for good luck, cast an old shoe after me.
DUNSHEE DOUGLAS: O Douglas, Douglas! Tendir and trewe.
SHAY JEFFORDS: My bonnie lies over the ocean.
EMERY CANN: My hopes are with the dead.
EDWIN HAMILTON: Every man has his fault, and honesty is his.
ADRIAN HEBARD: Women? I have never heard of them before. What are women like?
WILLARD REID: Oh Hell! What have we here?
HARRIETT CORKRAN: 'Tis well to be off with the old love before you are on with the new.
WHITMAN WATSON: Shaved like a stubble field in harvest time.
SAVAGE BRACKETT: Up rose the sun, and up rose Emelie.
MARIE COWLES: Full well she sange the service devine,
Entuned in her nose ful swetely.
LEE WILEY: Mad as a March hare.
DEANE AINES: Something between a hindrance and a help.
PHILIP BOWER: I'll speak in a monstrous little voice.
BISHOP CANFIELD: So wise, so young, they do never live long.
MARION CLOUGH: She looketh as butter would not melt in her mouth.
FLORENCE FELLOWES: Sharp as the little end of nothing.
MARTIN HALLER: Ye Gods! is yon merry lad a pedagogue?
WINSLOW FURBER: Oh wad some power the giftie gie us,
To see oursels as others see us.
AUGUSTUS SWAN: I doubt if hard work ever hurt anybody.
ELEANOR WOOD: She’s little but she’s wise,
She’s a terror for her size.
ERNEST MCSWEENEY: He did nothing and he did it well.
HOWARD MOREAU: Who can foretell with what high cause this darling of the Gods was born?
MARY CORTTIS: Woman, thy name is modesty.
Appreciation

To all those who have in any way aided in the publication of this volume, the editors express their heartiest thanks. However, there are some to whom especial mention is due, because of their numerous favors so generously offered. Among these are Professor Abbott and Dean Wiley, for their kindly advice and co-operation; Mr. Beale of The Tuttle Company, for valuable suggestions and personal interest; The Gove Studio, for their aid in the photographic department; Misses Mary Bliss, '20, Mary Smith, '20, Elizabeth Novak, '21, Frances Wiley, '21, Alice Sniffen, '22, and Messrs. Spencer, '21, Brautigam, '22, and Hall, '22, for their drawings.

Thanks are also due to the Advertisers, who have helped make possible the publication of this Kaleidoscope. We recommend that you patronize them.
